STRATEGIC MISSILE BASE — This drawing shows how the U. S. is planning its new Pacific missile range so that it can serve as the launching site for manned satellites—possibly armed with nuclear weapons to serve as world "policemen." Rear Adm. Jack Monroe, U.S.N., commander of the range at Point Arguello, satellites in polar orbits would come "if it be-satellites in polar orbits woul dcome "if it becomes desirable." Monroe said that Vandenberg Air Force Base, located near the range, was specifically "designed to fire in anger at Russia" with intercontinental ballistic missiles if armed hostilities ever occurred. He explained that national isolation of the new range will blend with the nation's new policy of strict secrecy regarding all kinds of firing. Tests from Cape Canaveral, Fla., have been made with full press coverage. (NEA Telephoto)

Airlines, Engineers Goto Court

3-Day Strike Hits Holiday Season

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Eastern Air Lines and its striking flight engineers today took their dispute into federal court. The three-day-old strike is tying up the nation's largest airline in a peak travel season.

As the Thanksgiving weekend neared, Eastern and another major carrier, Trans World Airlines, appeared far from a settlement. But the outlook was better elsewhere.

National Airlines and its machinists agreed to a new contract, heading off a walkout. And the Air Line Pilots Assn. bowed to a court order temporarily forbidding a strike against American Airlines.

On Florida's southeast coast, air reservations requests piled up.

Big Waiting List

Passengers could get night coach tickets for points north with a two-day wait. The waiting list for first-class flights ran five days.

Coming in by air, the situation was about the same. The earliest National Air Lines would accept reservations from New York to Miami was Monday, Dec. 1.

Railroad reservations were immediate—both ways.

Sole Directive

A factor of importance to this tourist-conscious area is that Eastern provides the sole direct air link between Miami and 30 cities, including Detroit, Akron, Columbus and Cleveland, Ohio, Pittsburgh and Montreal.

American Airlines appeared to have averted a strike by the Air Line Pilots Assn. The pilots said they would honor a court order directed against a walkout scheduled for last midnight.

Agreement Reached

Full agreement was reached between National Air Lines and the International Assn. of Machinists, according to an announcement. The new contract runs until Oct. 1, 1960.

Northeast Air Line representatives met with the IAM at Boston Tuesday night. Afterward, a company spokesman termed the talks satisfactory.

Meanwhile, Pan American World Airways announced in New York that it had reached a contract settlement with the Air Transport Division of the Brotherhood of Railway Clerks. The 5,000 clerical workers had set a strike deadline for the day after Thanksgiving.

$5 Million Suit Filed

Eastern filed suit for more than five million dollars against the Flight Engineers. The airline also asked federal court to enjoin the union. Eastern also asked the court to rule that it can force its engineers to meet qualifications deemed advisable for jet aircraft.

In turn, the Flight Engineers are suing Eastern. They want federal court to enjoin Eastern and the Air Line Pilots Assn. from negotiating any contract affecting engineers' job qualifications.

Proceeds will be used for charitable benefits.

Growers Say: End Corn Curb

WASHINGTON (AP) — Farmers voted in a referendum Tuesday to end 25-year-old government production controls on corn, the nation's largest single crop.

This was the first time since before World War II that growers of a major crop have turned thumbs down on federal restrictions as a measure for stabilizing production.

This politically significant action had been urged by Secretary of Agriculture Benson as a part of his controversial programs for reducing the government's role in agriculture.

How Vote Goes

Preliminary returns from 25 of the 26 major corn states in which balloting was conducted gave 246,475 votes to end federal restrictions and 100,064 to retain them. The other state—North Dakota—was delayed by adverse weather in tabulating its votes.

The results were expected to strengthen the Eisenhower administration's hands in dealing with the new Democrat-controlled Congress on future farm legislation. The voting came on the heels of recent congressional and state elections in which Republicans lost ground in farming areas.

May End Other Curbs

The vote to abandon corn controls may well encourage the administration to sponsor plans to ease if not end restrictions on other crops, such as wheat, rice, peanuts and tobacco.

The net effect of the referendum was a grower acceptance of lower government price supports for the right to grow all the corn they wish.

For consumers, the increased corn supplies and lower support prices could mean larger supplies and lower prices for meat, poultry and dairy products.

Under the old program, planting allotments were assigned growers in a designated commercial area. Those complying were eligible for price supports between 75 and 90 per cent of parity.

Standard for Measuring

Parity is a standard for measuring farm prices declared by law to be fair to farmers in relation to prices charged them.

Under the new program, there will be no allotments. All corn will be eligible for supports at 90 per cent of the average market price of corn during the three preceding years, but not less than 65 per cent of parity.

Officials estimate that supports next year will average between $1.12 and $1.15 a bushel. Under the control program, the average would have been between $1.24 and $1.27.

Less than a fourth of the eligible growers voted in the referendum.

Although controls had been in effect during recent years, only a small portion of the growers had complied with them. Most growers preferred to grow more, even if that meant lower prices and forfeiture of price supports.

West Accord Reported About Dealings With Communists on Berlin

No Appeal Is Taken by Cahill To Date on Schirick Decision

No order has been entered pursuant to the decision of Supreme Court Justice Harry E. Schirick in the action brought by Richard T. Cahill against the Kingston Board of Police Commissioners, the Municipal Civil Service Commission and City Treasurer Orrie R. Riehl.

Justice Schirick dismissed the application of Cahill, who sought to compel the police commissioners to cancel appointments made to the police force on the grounds the appointments were not in acordance with civil service rules.

Cahill, who was third on the eligible list, was passed over by the commissioners in making appointments.

Supreme Court Justice Schirick held that the commissioners had acted in accordance with the Civil Service Law and dismissed the petition of Cahill.

Cahill, who was represented by his father, Matthew V. Cahill, a former city judge and former corporation counsel, has indicated an appeal will be taken to the decision of Justice Schirick. Corporation Counsel William A. Kelly, who appeared for the police commissioners, members of the Civil Service Board and other city officials, today stated he had not been served with any notice of appeal and that up until this morning no order had been entered in accordance with the decision of Justice Schirick.

Force Not Ruled Out By Dulles

East Germans May Be Dealt With as Agents of Moscow

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of State Dulles said today the Western allies have reached basic agreement on how to deal with Soviet pressures over Berlin.

Dulles said that he would not rule out the use of force in defense of Western rights of access to the city but that he thought the question was academic because the Communists have not threatened to cut the land, water or air routes.

Sees Two Explanations

Dulles said there are at least two possible explanations of why the Soviet Union has not yet made its proposals to end occupation rights in Berlin although Premier Khrushchev forecast action 16 days ago.

One is that Khrushchev found himself out on a legal limb through failure to consult his lawyers and therefore has had to review his policy.

Another possible reason is that Soviet repudiation of the whole Potsdam agreement of 1945 might destroy the basis of Poland's rights in former German-held territory.

Dulles said the Polish government may have become alarmed over this.

Won't Reveal Steps

Dulles refused to spell out precisely what steps the Western powers might take in dealing with any challenge by the Communists over Berlin.

At times his carefully phrased answers skirted around areas in which — in line with persistent reports—there may be disagreement among the Allied powers which include West Germany.

Dulles did say the Western powers might deal with East German officials as agents of the Soviet Union. The Allies are agreed on this as a possible line of action, he said, depending on the circumstances if and when the Russians turn over to the East Germans the control of check points on the routes between West Germany and West Berlin.

Makes Other Points

Dulles made these other points in response to questions at his news conference:

1. The U.S. government has some slight evidence that the Soviet Union may have exploded more nuclear test weapons since Nov. 3 — the date of the last announced test shot. It is not possible to say, therefore, that a kind of practical suspension of weapons testing has been in effect since Nov. 3.

2. If there is a breakdown in negotiations at Geneva on an inspected ban on weapons testing, the United States may announce that it will not test any more weapons under conditions to cause air pollution. That would mean testing only at extreme heigh. or

Stepovich Is Lone GOP Hope

Democrats Score Sweep In Top Alaskan Races

JUNEAU, Alaska (AP) — A smashing Democratic victory in Alaska's election emerged today as returns mounted from the vast territory's 287 precincts.

Democrats led in all major races and were assured of overwhelming control of the 60-member Legislature.

Less than half the estimated total vote of about 40,000 in Tuesday's general election had been reported, but big city precincts still out were considered sure to reinforce the steadily growing Democratic lead.

Republicans still had a chance in the major contest between Democrat Ernest Gruening and Republican Mike Stepovich for one of the new state's two U.S. Senate seats.

Gruening, appointed governor of Alaska for more than 13 years during Democratic administrations, pulled ahead after the lead changed several times during the night.

Stepovich, who resigned as governor to make the Senate race, was the Republicans' strongest candidate for any major office.

Bartlett in Landslide

E. L. Bartlett, Alaska's Democratic delegate to Congress for the past 14 years, captured one U.S. Senate seat in a landslide.

Ralph Rivers, Democratic nominee for the single U.S. House seat from Alaska, claimed victory on the basis of the mounting returns.

William Egan, the Democratic choice for governor, was increasing his margin in the race for the first elected governor of Alaska.

The closest major race was between Gruening and Stepovich, another former governor, who had been favored on the basis of a 5,700-vote margin he had posted over Gruening in a primary election three months ago.

Trails by 589 Votes

With 134 precincts reporting, Bartlett had 13,158 votes in his Senate race against 2,394 for Republican R. E. Robertson and 183 for independent Keith Capper. Gruening had 8,323 against 7,734 for Stepovich. For Alaska's single congressional seat, Democrat Ralph Rivers had 8,878 votes to 7,241 for Republican Henry Benson.

For governor, Democrat William Egan, 44, a Valdez merchant, had 9,753 votes to 5,994 for Republican John Butrovich Jr., 48, a veteran territorial legislator.

Pre-election forecasts favored Democrats in all but the Stepovich-Gruening race, and Republican campaign efforts were concentrated on hopes of salvaging that one Senate seat.

A sweep in the senatorial contests would give Democrats 64 seats to 34 for Republicans when the 86th Congress convenes in January.

Victory for the Democrats in the congressional race would give the party 283 seats in the House of Representatives to 153 for the GOP.

Armory and 156th Rated 'Superior'

"There is little left to say when you rate an armory and its administration 'superior' these day," said Col. Norman J. Carey Sr., inspecting officer for the Division of Military and Naval Affairs, State of New York, and the New York Army National Guard.

Colonel Carey, on Tuesday, also inspected and audited all military funds and association funds handled by the units of the 156th Field Artillery Battalion in addition to his inspection of the State Armory operations.

The inspection is an all-day project and includes the armory property, records, finances, employes, care and maintenance, use and general operation. The Army National Guard units stationed at the armory are inspected as to finances and administration of unit and civil associations, both officer and enlisted men.

Colonel Carey made a thorough inspection of the buildings and maintenance and commented on its "outstandingly superior operation." He also complimented the armory employes for their application to duty and justifiable pride in the appearance and condition of the state armory.

The National Guard unit commanders, whose funds were also rated as being administratively "superior," were praised for their conscientious work and that of

Doubts Schools Can Do Without Real Estate Tax

A Dutchess County state legislator told members of the DUSO Home Builders Association on Tuesday evening that he did not believe the elimination of real estate taxes as a source of school revenue was possible.

Assemblyman R. Watson Pomeroy (R) was principal speaker at a meeting of the builders group held at the Ship Lantern Inn, Milton. Malvern Cunningham of Kingston was re-elected president of the association at the meeting.

The legislator said that educators and taxpayers groups want the present state law changed in methods of levying school taxes.

Would Like Change

Assemblyman Pomeroy said that, frankly, he didn't believe that it would be possible to eliminate real estate taxes as a source of school revenue. He said, however, that he felt a great proportion of the taxes should be met by other state taxes.

Whether the other revenue should come from sales taxes or income taxes, he did not know, the Assemblyman said.

"But to put on property as much as is now done, doesn't provide a fair proportion," he said.

All Should Pay

Pomeroy's comments on school taxes followed an appeal for removal of school taxes from the realm of real estate by Victor Sullivan, of Albany, president-elect of the New York State Home Builders Association. Sullivan declared that everyone should be required to support school expenses, not just the home owner.

Also discussed were requests by the builders for state studies on water resources and sanitary problems.

Head of Asphalt Firm Excused for Time On Talking

BUFFALO, N. Y. (AP) — Raymond Brayer, president of the Rock Asphalt Co., is temporarily excused from a Federal grand jury appearance after refusing to waive immunity from possible prosecution.

Brayer, main figure in probes of alleged graft in city street paving contracts, was scheduled to testify before the grand jury Tuesday.

Excused for Present

U. S. Atty. John O. Henderson said Brayer declined to sign a proffered waive of immunity and

Teacher Head Lists Goal

Vows Fight to Remove Politics From Schools

NEW YORK (AP)—Miss Helen P. Maney, new president of the New York State Teachers Assn., says she wants to "remove the element of politics from the public school system."

Miss Maney, elected at the association's 114th House of Delegates meeting, said Tuesday she would work for the fiscal independence of city school boards that now lack budget decision powers.

Such fiscal independence, she said, would "remove the element of politics from the public school system and give greater prominence to the needs of the schools themselves."

Prior to adjournment of the meeting, Miss Maney, a teacher since 1937 and head of the Geneva High School citizenship education department, took over the presidency from Mrs. May Henry of Yonkers.

The House of Delegates approved a resolution urging continued efforts toward fiscal independence in budget-making for school districts in Albany, Buffalo, Rochester, Syracuse and Yonkers. School budgets in these cities now must be approved by city governments.

Reject Higher Aid

The delegates rejected a resolution that would increase state aid to vocational and technical high schools.

The delegates passed a resolution seeking review of existing and proposed special provisions in the State Aid Law.

Another resolution called for a study of the possibility of the State Education Department setting up a training camp for teenagers that would be similar to the Civilian Conservation Corps camps of the 1930's.

The delegates also approved resolutions concerning teacher evaluation, State University salaries, effects of lengthening the school day and year, paid sick leave, and audio-visual instruction.

New Law Against Barring Elders Is Working Well

ALBANY, N. Y. (AP)—A new state law against age discrimination by employers seems to be working well, the State Commission Against Discrimination reports.

The commission said in a report Tuesday that 24 large corporations agreed unanimously in a survey that they expected no serious difficulty in complying with the law, which went into effect July 1.

The new law forbids discrimination on account of age, in employment practices.

The commission reported that newspaper advertisements specifying age limits for employment had declined "almost to the point of negligibility."

The agency reported it had received 45 complaints from persons who held they had been discriminated against because of age.

The complainants ranged from 38 to 81.

Three complaints were dismissed for lack of grounds. An employer admitted error in another. The others are pending.

78 PC in Metropolis

Seventy-eight per cent of the complaints originated in the New York City area, the rest Upstate.

Six persons charged discrimination by government agencies and four cited labor unions. Others named private industries.

The commission report was signed by Chairman Charles Abrams.

He said that some employment agencies hold that discrimination by subterfuge will continue unless top management changed its policies toward hiring older workers.

The report said that management had manifested neither strong opposition nor strong support in regard to the law.

The maximum penalty for violations of the age-discrimination law is a $500 fine and a year in jail.

Flemming to Talk School Problems at Paltz Dec. 8

A member of President Eisenhower's Cabinet, Dr. Arthur S. Flemming, Secretary of Health, Education and Welfare, will be the speaker at the fall general meeting of the Mid-Hudson School Study Council at the State University Teachers College at New Paltz on Monday night, Dec. 8.

Dr. Flemming, who is a native of Kingston, is expected to discuss, with the board members and school administrators of the area, the new Federal Aid to Schools Bill passed at the last session of Congress and other National problems of education. School board members, school administrators and teachers from the public schools of Dutchess, Putnam, Orange, Ulster Counties and other nearby areas will be in attendance at the meeting.

Dr. Flemming who was appointed to the President's Cabinet last May has been characterized by Time magazine as "Bringing to Washington, one of U. S.'s longest and best records as a government administrator and personnel expert." Prior to his appointment to the Cabinet he was president of Ohio Wesleyan University. He has been in and out of government service since he was appointed, in 1939 by President Franklin D. Roosevelt to be a member of the U. S. Civil Service Commission.

During and after World War II, he had posts in the Office of the War Manpower Commission, Labor Department, the Atomic Energy Commission and the Hoover Commission. In 1948 he left the government service to become president of Ohio Wesleyan, then returned to Washington as Defense Mobilization Director during the Korean War.

Greetings to Dr. Flemming will be extended at the meeting by Dr. William Haggerty, president of the State University Teachers College at New Paltz. He will be introduced by Mrs. Vincent G. Connelly, a member of the Board of Education of Kingston.

The Mid-Hudson School Study Council, with headquarters at the State University Teachers College at New Paltz, and at whose general meeting Dr. Flemming will speak, is an association of public schools of the Mid-Hudson area. Its purpose is to provide research information and in-service training for board members, school administrators and teachers.

The current president of the council is Dr. Earl F. Soper, superintendent of schools of Kingston, the vice president is Edwin Hunger, superintendent of schools in Poughkeepsie. The executive secretary is Dr. William J. Hageny, professor of education at the college.

Feasting, Parades and Quiet Prayer To Mark Thanksgiving Holiday in U.S.

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Thanksgiving, a day for taking stock and counting blessings, will be celebrated throughout the land Thursday with traditional feasting, parades and quiet prayer.

At Plymouth, Mass., where it all started, descendants of the Pilgrims and others will attend services in the First Church (Unitarian). Later a pageant will portray the events linked with the founding of the colony in 1620-21.

President Eisenhower and his family and grandchildren will spend the holiday at their vacation spot in Augusta, Ga.

The Macy parade in New York, now viewed by additional millions via television, again will feature gigantic balloons bobbing down Manhattan's streets and avenues — in spite of a government ban on using helium to fill them.

The Macy people and the Goodyear people, who make the balloons, put their heads together and decided to inflate the balloons with air and suspend them from huge, mobile cranes.

Pittsburgh will open a 14-month bicentennial celebration with a colorful ceremony, including a parade of 180 bagpipers, a band concert, historical speeches, and the firing of cannon. Later Pittsburghers can take in the Penn State-Pitt football game, opening event of the bicentennial sports program.

At San Diego, Calif., Dr. Frank Lowe, president of the Council of Churches, called for a large attendance at a nonsectarian Thanksgiving service in the city-owned Balboa Park, as an expression of gratitude for being able to use the park.

A controversy developed several months ago when evangelist Billy Graham used the park for a meeting. A citizen protested the use of public property for religious purposes as a possible violation of the state constitution.

The issue was resolved when City Atty. Jean DePaul approved use of the park for Thanksgiving services if they are nonsectarian.

Many cities planned interfaith services, and Protestant, Catholic and Jewish houses of worship prepared for special separate services as well.

Some churches in New York adorned altars and chancels with fruits of the harvest, and after services of praise and thanksgiving will distribute the vegetables and fruits to needy families and hospitals.

To celebrate the occasion the University of Texas will dedicate a replica of Santa Rita No. 1, the first of 4,085 oil wells on the university's lands. They have contributed many millions to the school's permanent fund. An annual event at Austin is the Texas A&M-University of Texas football game.

Detroit will be host to the only professional football game of the day, the Detroit Lions versus the Green Bay Packers. The Motor City also holds a parade that rivals the Macy spectacle.

No Mail Tomorrow

There will be no delivery of mail on Thursday, Thanksgiving Day. The lobby in the Central Post Office, Broadway, will remain open from 6 a. m. to 3 p. m., in the uptown station from 8:30 a. m. to 10:30 a. m. and in the Rondout Station from 8 a. m. to 10 a. m. for the convenience of box holders. There will be no window service.

KINGSTON, NEW YORK, NOVEMBER 26, 1958

The Freeman will not be published Thursday, November 27 in observance of Thanksgiving Day.

A DAY FOR THANKS

We have so much to be thankful for.

This is the day when our universal prayers should flow heavenward across the breadth of America. This is a day for turkey, a day for yams and mince pie. But first of all, it is a feast of thanksgiving, humble recognition of the privilege of life and for the fruits of the field which keep it sustained.

Such is human anxiety that most individuals feel assailed and endangered. There are only brief moments of security and peacefulness in the mind.

And as we read our daily papers with their review of the woes of the world it is difficult to appreciate that with all the perils and fears, we here in America are blessed beyond measurement.

On Thanksgiving we have a day set aside for just such an appraisal. As the family gathers about the festive table there should be no more appropriate moment for such a stock-taking.

It is no wonder that the Pilgrims have been a lasting symbol of this holiday. When they celebrated the first Thanksgiving they were sorely beset.

Far from home, we can only imagine their loneliness and sad dreams of once familiar scenes.

There were real physical dangers only yards from their crude homes. The Indians and forest animals could be lurking there.

No modern American, used to stacks of canned goods in nearby supermarkets, could summon up in his mind what food meant to these Pilgrims. The winter could be lived through only if enough food was amassed during the growing months. It was grow or die.

Our problems today are threatening. But in comparison with the frightening plight of the Pilgrims we can see that, really, few who have lived have ever been so secure and shared such plenty as we have.

Our storehouses are overflowing. Medical science has lengthened life expectancy.

While each individual's life may not bring the recognition or the good things he might wish for, the meanest among us has a life which the Pilgrims could envy.

There is much to be thankful for. And this is the day to make this inventory and give thanks to the Almighty who guides our destiny.

In one area, auto accident jury awards have risen from $2,585 to $89,781 in a decade. Proving that the cost of dying goes up even faster than the cost of living.

THE END OF SUN TIME

Three quarters of a century ago on Nov. 18 an event took place whose anniversary passed almost unnoticed, but which has had a profounder effect on the average American than many a more famous occurrence. This was the introduction of standard time, replacing hundreds of local systems which disagreed with one another.

These systems had one common name, "sun time." Its basis of operation was the same for each community, though the results differed widely. When the sun reached its highest point above some agreed-on landmark, that moment was taken to be noon. The effect was that the time in two nearby towns might vary somewhat, enough to be embarrassing for anyone wishing, say, to catch a train.

As time divergencies troubled the railroads especially, these took the lead in working out a better system. Eventually on Nov. 18, 1883, standard time was established, with the four familiar zones, Eastern, Central, Mountain and Pacific. The extreme eastern part of the continent was put in a fifth zone, Atlantic.

Little by little standard time slew its local opponents. On March 19, 1918, it received the endorsement of Congress.

How is standard time determined? Not by the sun, but by the moment at which certain stars pass a fine hairline in the Washington Naval Observatory. Communities living close to the zone boundaries suffer some confusion. Daylight saving, when adopted by one community and rejected by its neighbor, presents difficulties. But at its worst the present system is far better than the old rule of sun time.

'These Days'

By GEORGE SOKOLSKY

OUR UNFORTUNATES

There are no titles of birth or aristocracy or nobility in the United States perhaps only because they are forbidden by the Constitution. This appears in Article I, Section 9 and reads:

"No title of nobility shall be granted by the United States: and no person holding any office of profit or trust under them, shall, without the consent of the Congress, accept of any present, emolument, office, or title, of any kind whatever, from any king, prince, or foreign state."

Of course, plenty of American women have gone abroad and had themselves married to various titled persons in foreign lands. While they are in this country, they may be addressed by their foreign status, but the title has no particular meaning in this country except as a courtesy.

Titles are on the wane, anyhow. Germany, Italy, the Austro-Hungarian Empire and other places where once monarchs ruled in medieval splendor are now republics an dancient titles are no longer of any legitimacy in those countries. The British titles are, of course, legitimate and important. The British government awards titles for major achievements in every line of human endeavor. It is therefore not unusual in that country to find a member of the House of Lords wishing that he was a commoner with a good salary to boot.

Distinction by marriage is normal in the human race, most wives basking in their husbands' success. However, a European title often does not indicate particular success, but rather descent from a very remote ancestor who did well for himself in the numerous enterprises available during feudalism, some of which are nowadays regarded as not permissible such as chopping off a head or putting poison in the soup for profit. If all of us got to looking into our ancestries, we might be not a little embarrassed. Certainly those who criticize Frank Costello or the gentlemen of the Apalachin Mafia must not ever have a look at the founder of the house which gives them a grandiloquent name.

New York and Washington, each winter, fill with titled folks, most of whom are delightful people. They form a pleasant society of luncheons, dinners, flirtations and polite conversations. A few are very hard working diplomats. Some are married to American wives and not a few have difficulties arising therefrom.

In the current world, distinction seems to go only to the distinguished, particularly in the sciences and the arts and nobody worries much where anybody was born or from whom. Most of the rulers of the great and powerful nations in the year 1958 have no especially notable ancestors and their wives do not know how to curtsy or to be curtsied to. That makes it all very difficult.

The Russian nobility used to be very noble indeed. And generally, they were rich. They not only owned land but they owned "souls," as they called them, and when they came to Berlin or Paris or London, they had lots of money to spend and they spent it freely. Now, those who still try to maintain something of the old times are a dwindling society that is being merged in the proletariat, except a few who adjusted early and managed to use their intellects to earn a living. The Austrians have gone through the same fate and it is not difficult to meet a scion of 1,000 years of ancestors who is earning an honest living selling this or that.

The phonies are mostly Americans, that is, American women who got some kind of a title by marriage and cling to it grimly. The most favored title in this country is Missus, generally spelled Mrs., and remaining so unchanged until death do us part. It may be a very narrow-minded, provincial, even parochial attitude but it is as American as baked beans on Saturday night in New England.

I should imagine that Mrs. Emily Post who knows about such things has somewhere written a decision as to whether American women, in their own country, are called upon to curtsy to ladies bearing foreign titles and under what circumstances. Curtsying has become quite a business in New York and generally looks silly because to do it beautifully, one needs to be trained in childhood. The normal salutation hereabouts is a handshake which is tough on a lady if the man is indelicate.

Medical Advances Lessen Dangers of Osteomyelitis

BY EDWIN P. JORDAN, M.D.
Written for NEA Service

Although I have not seen any figures to prove it, it is my impression that the bone infection known as osteomyelitis is not as common as it used to be.

Curiously enough, however, I continue to receive a great many questions about it. This is perhaps more evidence of the intense interest in osteomyelitis by those who have it than it is of the frequency of the disease.

Osteomyelitis is a disease of the bone tissue which results from invasion by germs. These germs destroy the bone and produce pus.

Historically this is an old disease and has been known for centuries. Signs of osteomyelitis have been found in bones of ancient man which have been buried for thousands of years and dug up in archeological explorations.

Until recent times the treatment has been discouraging and difficult. Severe cases, even as late as the 16th century, were treated by amputation of the limb. This is a bit radical. Other treatments involved the application of strange mixtures to the tissues around the infected bone, including herbs, powders from mummies, egg yolk and crushed body lice.

One of the most interesting forms of treatments has been the use of maggots. Maggots eat dead tissue only, leaving live tissue unharmed. Thus, if they are placed in an area containing dead bone and other dead cells, they clean up the area without harming that part of the bone which is alive and healthy. When they have completed their job they can be removed easily. I understand this treatment is still used occasionally.

The development of modern surgery has done much for the patient with chronic osteomyelitis. It has become possible to clean out and scrape the infected bone, thus permitting healing. Ingenious instruments have been invented to aid in the work of boring into the bone and scraping out infected material.

Today new methods of attack on osteomyelitis are available. These are the drugs of the sulfa group and substances obtained from molds or germs called antibiotics, of which penicillin is the best known example. They have made it possible to save many people with osteomyelitis from months, or even years of hospitalization and repeated surgery.

Chronic osteomyelitis even now can be a long-lasting and serious disease. It may produce unfavorable complications in the kidneys, or elsewhere. Emphasis should be placed on diagnosing it early and using vigorous measures to bring it under control as soon as possible. Without treatment it is likely to get worse as time goes on.

Washington News

By BRUCE BIOSSAT
NEA Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON — (NEA) — The ambitious federal interstate highway system, designed to lace the country together with 41,000 miles of broad superroads, is heading into a growing mountain of financial difficulties.

Right now you can drive on perhaps no more than 2,500 miles of roadway belonging to this system, but better than four-fifths of this represents previously constructed turnpikes and free roads blanketed into the national network.

The program was expected to get away slowly from the July 1, 1956, starting date. The problem today is the rising pile of money obstacles that could stall completion of the program far beyond the 1972 limit.

Reported recommendation to President Eisenhower that he ask Congress to hike the federal gasoline tax from three cents a gallon to four or four and a half reflect the general concern.

ROOTS OF THE DIFFICULTY are several.

In adopting the 1956 highway act, Congress ended the practice of financing highway work out of general U. S. revenues. It set up a Highway Trust Fund to be fed by money from gasoline, motor fuel, tire and tube and similar "user" taxes.

At the same time it put in a couple of twisters. It specified that in any given year, before a nickel could be apportioned for the dramatic interstate system, the regularly established program for primary [illegible] secondary roads was to be paid for from the trust fund.

Under the Byrd amendment, if the leftovers didn't cover all the authorized outlays for the particular year, apportionments would have to be cut back to correspond to available sums. Drawing on the general fund was barred.

Since the regular highway program was authorized to grow yearly toward a level one-billion-dollar annual figure, it became quickly apparent that the limit put on the interstate system was a built-in action drag.

THUS, WITH NOTHING ELSE involved, the 25 billion interstate system could wind up in 1972 some 2.6 billion short of its goal. Roads we really need now would still be the planner's dream.

That's not all. Increased costs stemming from inflation, additional mileage and new special demands by Congress have tossed an estimated extra 8.9 billion onto the pile.

This year, eager to chop away at the recession, Congress authorized another 800 billion dollars for the interstate system in the 1959-61 fiscal years and 400 million more to be used by December, 1959, on the regular highway program.

To ease the money pressure a little, it said highway authorities could borrow from the general fund this year and next, but just enough to allow work up to full schedules for that period.

HIGHWAY PEOPLE SAY these borrowings would produce a 1.5 billion dollar deficit by January, 1962.

If that money has to be repaid from the highway fund without delay, it's figured no money can be handed out for the interstate system at all in fiscal 1961 and only 600 million dollars in 1962. The motorist will be left to wonder where his beautiful roads are.

Still more woe comes from the fact that 1,000 miles of the system are without any financing provisions whatsoever.

When you grind all the added authorization and cost factors up in an IBM machine, the federal price tag comes close to 36 billion dollars. Without more money for the interstate system, it could be 12 billion behind at the scheduled 1972 deadline.

The enforced stretch-out might delay completion to from 1976 to 1981, nearly a generation off. By then, with traffic soaring as population booms, we might need a new federal system of 10-lane highways.

Alabama Case Ruling Seen As a New Integration Law

By DAVID LAWRENCE

WASHINGTON — There's a new "law of the land" today on the integration problems of public schools. Local school boards henceforth are authorized, as a result of a Supreme Court decision, to assign pupils to whatever schools they please without revealing any reasons for their inaction.

While the case concerned an Alabama law, it applies throughout the nation wherever states now may pass "pupil assignment" laws. These statutes, however, will be held unconstitutional if they deny entry on account of race or color or are enforced as a part of a scheme of legislation that requires segregation.

The reason the "pupil assignment" law is held constitutional is because the denial or grant of the pupil's request is not based on any proved discrimination because of race or color.

This may mark a turning point in the whole controversy over integration. It could help solve the Virginia and Arkansas problems. In a sense, it is not a reversal by the Supreme Court of its historic decision of 1954 which said the classification by race was unconstitutional, but it is an affirmation of the principle that wherever there is exclusion or inclusion of a pupil in a particular school, it must be based on that individual's personal qualifications.

The Alabama law sets forth the basis on which the local school boards may act, as follows:

"In the assignment, transfer or continuance of pupils among and within the schools, or within the classroom and other facilities thereof, the following factors and the effect or results thereof shall be considered, with respect to the individual pupil, as well as other relevant matters:

"Available room and teaching capacity in the various schools; the availability of transportation facilities; the effect of the admission of new pupils upon established or proposed academic programs; the suitability of established curricula for particular pupils; the adequacy of the pupil's academic preparation for admission to a particular school and curriculum; the scholastic aptitude and relative intelligence or mental energy or ability of the pupil;

"The psychological qualification of the pupil for the type of teaching and association involved; the effect of admission of the pupil upon the academic progress of other students in a particular school or facility thereof; the effect of admission upon prevailing academic standards in a particular school; the physical effect upon the pupil of attendance at a particular school; the possibility or threat of friction or disorder among pupils or others; the possibility of breaches of the peace or ill-will or economic retaliation within the community; the home environment of the pupil;

"The maintenance or severance of established social and psychological relationships with other pupils and with teachers; the choice and interest of the pupil, the moral conduct, health and personal standards of the pupil; the request or consent of parents or guardian and the reason assigned therefor."

On Limited Grounds

The attorneys in the lower court proceeding in behalf of the four Negro children who had made application to enter a particular school objected in vain to the portions of the above-quoted paragraph relating to "psychological qualification of the pupil for the type of teaching and association involved" and also to the sentences referring to the "threat of friction or disorder among pupils or others" and "breaches of the peace or ill-will or economic retaliation within the community," as well as to the sentence referring to "the maintenance or severance of established social and psychological relationships with other pupils and with teachers."

The Supreme Court, in its brief order affirming the judgment of the lower court, did so "upon the limited grounds on which the district court rested its decision."

But the lower Federal court had said frankly that it couldn't tell what reasons had influenced the school board and that the plaintiffs had not been able to prove "that they cannot attend the schools of their choice because of their race or color."

Boards Given Loophole

This gives the school boards quite a loophole and an opportunity for circumvention. It means that in some communities in the South local school boards will order "token" integration. In others, they will find it easy to ignore requests for transfer of certain white and colored pupils and will act as they please about "integration."

It may be doubted whether the Supreme Court did this deliberately. Rather is found itself caught with a statute that was so broad that is permitted almost any kind of action. It, therefore, upheld the lower court which had ruled that the law is constitutional "on its face." Certainly if the school boards cannot be held accountable for the way they handle student applications, the whole integration controversy has come to a kind of stalemate that might bring, for a time at least, a truce.

Incidentally, the record of the Little Rock School Board, disclosed in court last September, shows conclusively that, had such a law been in effect in Arkansas without any other laws that involved segregation, the board would have failed to act on the applications of certain Negro pupils along with those of certain white pupils. There would have been no way to go behind the reasons for the "inaction" by the school board. "Pupil assignment" laws mean slow-moving "token" integration based on local option and the whim of local school boards.

AS PEGLER SEES IT

By WESTBROOK PEGLER

One day, amid the mealy squabbling of the American Bar Association in Los Angeles, William Mulligan, of New York, booked passage for self, wife and small daughter, both named Ciel, on a rubber-neck tour of the tattered illusions of the world of make-believe, including Hollywood and Vine which now is one with Nineveh and George M. Cohan's Broadway. My contempt for bar and bench is intellectual, not personal, so no compromise was implied by my invitation to the Mulligans three to come with me instead to the Hal Roach plant where my friend, Zasu Pitts, was working with an inspiring young blonde, Miss Gale Storm, in the joyous TV trivialities of "Oh Susanna," the Gale Storm Show. Ciel, the lesser, age 9, is a Gale Storm devotee of considerable seniority so the doors of the studio were to her as the portals of the enchanted mountain which opened for the notes of the Pied Piper.

Later, Mr. Mulligan wrote.

"Gale Storm is a revelation, a tiny bundle of dynamite and chin-up personality, working 12 hours a day and pretending very persuasively that it is great fun. We had the pleasure of meeting Miss Pitts, a truly great lady of the cinema, and Miss Storm's stand-in and 'right-hand-man', Miss Margie Kane, who enfolded a hesitant little girl and big-sistered her all afternoon. Before she ever saw California, Ciel's favorite TV show was this one. You know the definition of a child—a human being, between an adult and a TV screen."

I had studied other tiny showtroupes of the astringent new mode brought into being by TV, which generally holds together a cast of from four to six staff actors and employs other players by the day or job. Thus I was adjusted for the discovery that this unit consisted mainly of Miss Storm, Zasu, Roy Roberts, whom I had known around the lambs, and Jimmy Fairfax, an Englishman and thus inevitably, to Americans, a Cockney, although he was born in Scarborough.

Mr. Roberts is the skipper of the Ocean Queen, a cruise-boat artfully suggested by port-holes, sections of rail, a gang-plank, bulkheads with simulated rivets and occasional newsreel glimpses of the S. S. Constitution. Mr. Fairfax is the permanent steward. Miss Storm is Susanna Pomeroy, the social director of a cruise which began three years ago and on this day put in at Lisbon for an incoherent episode complicated with spies. Zasu is the manicurist always drawn into embarrassments with the irresistible attraction of the egg to the electric fan. In support of these four we have Miss Kane, as aforesaid, and Miss Betty Danko, until recently a stunt-girl, who abandoned all that when a car jumped the curb as she waited for a bus and really used her up.

One's impressions of the opulent Hollywood of the moving picture phase were not pleasant, but TV harks back to the informality and humanity of the rep shows which toured the Blue Ridge and the Central Plains and of the show boats of the big rivers.

It is not as impromptu as the Essanay comedies, for they do follow script, but William Seiter, the man on the tall ladder, directing all this, seemed to be improvising in a medium which makes a show in two or three days.

Gale Storm is a girl with everything. She has a husband, four children, home life, success, a voice, a fortune in earnings, ability and the command and patient kindness which keep down the nail-biting rancors of the silently aggrieved. Her two leggedy, well-behaved stalwarts, Peter, 12, and Paul, 11, obviously crowded with their spinach and formula by a versatile young mother, are as tall as she is already.

The resemblance to stock company theatre is more apparent on the set than it is in the weekly shows. However, "stock" seldom presented original material whereas the chapters of "Oh Susanna" all are new-mown and often as incoherent as the plots of old western wheel burlesque.

Jimmy McKay disputed me on the right to work. He is an electrician with a card in the old Browne-Bioff union which is not fundamentally improved.

But we parted on pleasant terms, for Mr. McKay had also a card in Father Duffy Post of the Legion named in memory of an old mutual friend whose statue stands in a little island of Broadway now washed by currents of people very strange to those who saw Broadway with young eyes in 1916.

Record Budget

NEW LONDON, Conn. (AP)—The American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions of the Congregational Christian churches has set a record budget for overseas missions in 1959: A total of $2,275,665, topping the 1958 figure by $150,000.

201 Die in State Traffic Mishaps During October

Two hundred and one persons died as the result of automobile accidents, 72 of them pedestrians, in New York State during October, a report by the Bureau of Motor Vehicles indicated today.

But the death toll was eight less than in October of 1957, a decrease of four percent, and the total for the 10 months of 1958 also has decreased from a year ago—1757 to 1727, or two percent fewer. Pedestrian deaths have increased, however, for the 10-month period, from 599 to 635, or six percent.

Rural areas show an increase in pedestrian deaths of 11, from 166 to 177, so far this year; urban areas a decrease from 103 to 86; while New York City indicates an increase of from 330 to 372.

So far this year, there have been 1553 fatal accidents in which 1727 have been killed against 1585 accidents and 1757 killed last year. New York City shows increases in accidents, 460 to 506; deaths, 484 to 522; and pedestrian deaths, 330 to 372.

Urban accidents decreased four percent and deaths three percent while rural accidents were eight percent less and deaths six percent.

Seventy-seven percent of the drivers involved in the fatal accidents were violating traffic laws, five percent of them intoxicated. Six percent of the fatal accidents were attributed to vehicular defects.

Accord Aid Group To Give Program On Chinda Dec. 4

An educational and informative program is planned for the next Accord School-Aid meeting, Dec. 4 at 7:30 p. m. at the Accord School. Miss Merritt of Kingston will speak on "China". She will discuss family life including customs and holidays, schools, and personal experiences and will display Chinese costumes and objects from her collection.

Miss Merritt has lived for more than 20 years in China where she was associated with the Isabel Hart School and the Fannie Nast Gamble School at Sienyu. She has also taught in Formosa and has recently returned to the United States.

At present she is employed by the Rondout Valley Central School as a special class teacher at the Accord Elementary School building. Children from the third through seventh grades are encouraged to attend this program with a parent. The public as well as School-Aid members are invited to attend.

Glancing Over TV Bill of Fare

By CHARLES MERCER

NEW YORK (AP)—Not everyone who wants to visit Central Africa will go there. Fortunately for stay-at-homes, however, Lowell Thomas has returned with a filmed report of his expedition to the Belgian Congo and the Mountains of the Moon.

His account of his odyssey will be visible to the home viewing audience Dec. 6 on High Adventure over CBS-TV.

Not All Roughing

When he returned, Thomas brought with him for a visit in this country the young Belgian hunter who guided him on safari. His name is Chris Pollet, and he's spent nine of his 28 years in Africa.

Absolutely everybody with sufficient money and enthusiasm can go to Central Africa these days —and he need not rough it in some of the out-of-the-way places to which Thomas and his crew penetrated. In the past year, for example, Pollet has guided 37 Americans about with gun or camera from his main lodge at Kasenyi.

Pollet, like everyone who has traveled back of beyond with Thomas, has high praise for Thomas's good sportsmanship and indifference to discomfort. But what about other Americans Pollet has guided? Are they different in any ways from Europeans?

Says Yanks Shyer

"In general," Pollet said the other day, "Americans are shyer than Europeans. They have absolutely no fear of wild animals or rough country or any of those things that American movies about Africa always are emphasizing.

"The chief fear they seem to have is of getting sick. They're afraid of catching malaria or dysentery or some rare disease. They never seem to think of being afraid of lions or hippos, but they—some of them—can be quite frightened by snakes or spiders.

Finicky About Food

"They're extremely finicky about what they eat—a problem I've personally solved by training two excellent chefs to feed my guests. And I never have known an American who didn't want ice —lots of ice, all of the time. I never understood it until I came to this country. It's amazing. Even when you're served a glass of water, there's ice in it."

Thomas's High Adventure in Central Africa will explore the fascinating, legendary Mountains of the Moon — the Ruwenzori— which rise nearly 17,000 feet on the eastern border of the Congo and where many Africans believe strange spirits dwell. Among other sequences in the program will be one film of the secret Anyota ceremony in which boys are indoctrinated into manhood.

Rising Water Table May Turn Lahore Into Sea of Mud

LAHORE, Pakistan (AP)—After standing for nearly 2,000 years, this city of nearly a million people may be in danger of becoming a sea of mud.

Driveways crack and patios buckle away from houses after Monsoon rains. House foundations sink. The threat to Lahore, and to other communities in the Indus River basin of India and Pakistan, is from a rising water table.

Two decades ago, well diggers had to bore 50 feet before striking water here. Now water is reached at 7 to 15 feet. There are fears that unless something is done, Lahore may stand in a shallow pond within a few years.

The water threat is not a new one. As long ago as 1933, says a survey by Karachi University, 10 villages had to be abandoned because of house collapses.

The villains in this slow-moving drama are the men who planned irrigation canals which bring water to more than 9½ million acres in the Punjab area. None of the canals was lined, and as a result they lose perhaps more water then they bring to crops. The underground water level rises, eventually to make the earth's surface itself a pond. Salts from the earth rise along with the water table, forming an arid crust when they reach the surface.

Officials predict that both Lahore and the farmlands will be saved through better drainage. Doubters say the only real remedy is to line the irrigation canals.

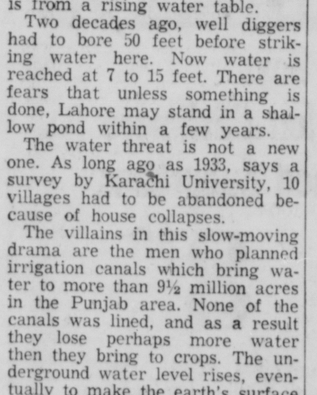
Albany to Get Loan

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Community Facilities Administration will loan Albany Hospital at Albany, N. Y., $563,000 to help finance a seven-story dormitory for student nurses.

The hospital will provide $153,000. The building will house 126 student nurses.

The administration announced Tuesday that the loan had been approved.

Why We Say--



NO SODA WATER: Our popular ice cream dish was actually named after Sunday because at one time in Evanston, Illinois, sodas were forbidden by law on Sunday. To get around the law, the soda water was omitted and only the ice cream and syrup were served as a "sundae."

Counsel May Be Appointed Today By Rockefeller

NEW YORK (AP) — Gov.-elect Nelson A. Rockefeller is expected to name his counsel today to start the ball rolling toward filling key posts in his administration.

Rockefeller said Tuesday that naming of the counsel, a sensitive position in the governor's personal entourage, would complete the filling of posts in "the most intimate group of the executive organization."

Others to Follow

Naming of other top posts will then follow, he said.

He appointed George L. Hinman, a Binghamton attorney, as interim executive assistant Tuesday to help him select the most important personnel for his administration. Hinman, 53, has agreed to serve until Jan. 1 when Rockefeller's new GOP administration takes over in Albany.

After a meeting with his "kitchen cabinet" at the governor-elect's temporary offices here, Rockefeller said:

"We have been talking about certain key appointments. I have decided not to appoint a permanent executive assistant at this time. But the selection of key people of this administration is of major importance and Mr Hinman has agreed to work with me until the first of the year."

Hinman served as counsel to the Committee on Constitutional Revision of which Rockefeller was chairman. He was on the Board of Regents from 1948 to 1951.

Requirements High

Rockefeller stressed that those seeking posts in the state government should make their bids through county organizations to the state chairman.

"Ability for the job and integrity will be the prime considerations," he said.

Asked if he planned to work Thanksgiving Day, Rockefeller commented: "Turkey. That's all."

He will spend the holiday with his family in Tarrytown.

Friday he plans to meet with T. Norman Hurd, his budget director, to discuss the new budget.

Among those attending Tuesday's meeting were Rockefeller, Hinman, Dr. William J. Ronan, who will be secretary to the governor; L. Judson Morhouse, GOP state chairman; Malcolm Wilson, the lieutenant governor-elect; and Francis Jamieson, who will be a special consultant to the governor.

Man Loses Life In Second Slide

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

MASSENA, N. Y. (AP) — Jan Ligeza was saved once after earth walls of a deep trench collapsed on him Tuesday but a second earth slide took his life.

Ligeza, 34, of Brasher Falls, and Anthony J. Rando, 26, of Norwood, were working in a 20-foot-deep trench on the outskirts of this northern New York village.

Both Men Buried

Walls of the trench collapsed, burying both.

Three other workers jumped in. They scooped dirt away from the heads of the two men.

A second avalanche of earth poured onto the group. Ligeza and Rando were buried again. The rescuers stood in dirt up to their waists.

More men rushed in. Rando was dug out alive. Lizega was dead when he was uncovered in the second time. The other four were injured.

Joseph Ribadeau, 21, of Brasner Falls, said Ligeza was alive the first time he was uncovered.

Laying Sewer Pipe

The workers were laying sewer pipe in the trench. Rando suffered bruises and abrasions.

The injured rescue workers were Alfred Almond, 20, of Fort Covington, a fractured arm; Edward R. Bradt, 23, of Johnstown, a sprained back, and Ribadeau, abrasions.

All were admitted to Massena Memorial Hospital. Rando also was hospitalized.

Ligeza was a displaced person from Poland who came to this area in 1949. He was not married.

Grandchildren Will Visit Eisenhowers

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP)—The four grandchildren of President and Mrs. Eisenhower join them at their vacation retreat today for the Thanksgiving weekend.

The youngsters are scheduled to fly from Washington for turkey dinner Thursday at the Augusta National Golf Club.

The children are being accompanied by their parents, Army Maj. John Eisenhower and his wife Barbara. The family arranged to travel aboard an Air Force courier plane which makes the trip to Augusta almost daily to bring government documents and reports to the President.

Eisenhower's son John, now on the White House staff, will sit in here Friday morning at the President's conference with Pentagon and Budget Bureau officials on military spending.

The conference delegation from Washington will include Secretary of Defense Neil H. McElroy; Gen. Nathan F. Twining, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff; and Budget Director Maurice H. Stans.

Engineer Dies on Train

SALAMANCA, N. Y. (AP) — A veteran Erie Railroad engineer, William McCarthy of Hornell, died of a heart attack aboard his passenger train Tuesday night. He was 64.

He had left his cab to inspect some equipment after turning over the controls to a fireman. When he failed to return as expected, crewmen searched and found him collapsed on the floor.

He was pronounced dead when the Hoboken-Chicago train arrived here from Olean.

Two Are Indicted for Attack On Paltz Girl, 17; Kidnaping Conviction Could Mean Death

Two men who stand charged with having criminally attacking a 17 year old New Paltz State Teachers College student on the night of November 9, were indicted by the grand jury today on charges of rape, first degree; assault, second degree, and kidnaping.

Robert George Feldt, 21, of Plattekill, and Michael Hodges, 20, of Route 32, Newburgh, if convicted of the charge of kidnaping could pay the death penalty under New York State Law or if the jury recommends clemency could receive from 20 years to life.

One of 23 Indictments

The indictment against Feldt and Hodges was among eight open and 15 sealed indictments handed up by the October Supreme Court Grand Jury today. The jury reported to Supreme Court Justice Roscoe V. Elsworth before whom the term had been adjourned by Justice Donald S. Taylor, who presided at the trial term.

Three dismissals were also reported. They were:

The People vs Thomas C. Ash, violation of Section 1897, Sub. 4, illegal possession of a firearm.

The People vs Gilman Albert, grand larceny, second degree.

Fortunate Arsi, violation Section 1897, Sub. 4, illegal possession of a firearm.

Arrested Nov. 13

Feldt and Hodges were arrested by State Police in Nassau County, Long Island, November 13, on complaint of a 17 year old New Paltz State Teachers College student who charged she had been attacked by the two men on Sunday evening, November 9 after she had alighted from a bus.

Forced Into Truck

The student, whose identity was not divulged, had returned to New Paltz from a weekend at home. About 9 p. m. she alighted from a bus and charges she was forced into a pick-up truck on Mohonk Avenue by two men. She was taken to a wooded area on Plattekill Road where she alleges she was criminally attacked by the two men.

Threats on her life were made, she told state police, before she was released about midnight.

A man and woman residing in the area heard the girl's screams and took the license number of the vehicle which was reported to state police. The arrests followed.

None of the defendants named in indictments was arraigned and all indictments were transferred by order of the court to County Court for disposition.

Other Indictments

Other open indictments reported are: Ralph Saviano, 20, and Robert Saponaro, 20, both of Natick, Mass., charged with burglary third degree and unlawful entry.

The charge rose out of a number of burglaries during April, 1957 in the town of Denning. One of the places entered was the former Forstman estate, now owned by the New Jersey Council of YMCA's. A third man is still being sought.

Edward Cornelius, violation of Section 1897, subdivision 4, illegal possession of a firearm.

Leonard W. Quanchi and Jeremiah W. Hayes, grand larceny first degree. William Wood, rape second degree, as a misdemeanor. James H. Rhinehart, burglary third degree and unlawful entry. Olaf Kurt Demand, grand larceny second degree and unlawful entry. Richard Bartlett, grand larceny second degree.

Bench warrants were ordered issued for defendants named in sealed indictments and all indictments were then ordered to county clerk for disposition. In the three cases where no indictment was returned bail was exonerated or the defendant discharged from custody.

Court recessed until 11 a. m. Monday, but grand jurors will not return at that time unless summoned. Justice Elsworth thanked the jurors for their service.

H. N. Schwarzkopf Dies

WEST ORANGE, N.J. (AP)— Maj. Gen. H. Norman Schwarzkopf (ret.), who headed the New Jersey State Police at the time of the Lindbergh kidnaping case died Tuesday night at his home. He was 63.

The onetime military adviser to the Persian government has been in retirement for several years. The cause of death was not disclosed.

Despite his accomplishments as a soldier, businessman and organizer, it was as a policeman that he won national attention.

Schwarzkopf in 1932 led the state police hunt for the kidnaper of the Charles A. Lindbergh son. Schwarzkopf drew criticism from Gov. Harold G. Hoffman that he had "bungled" the case.

Sales Up, Earnings Dip

NEW YORK (AP) — West Virginia Pulp & Paper Co. reports sales are up but earnings are down.

The company yesterday reported sales of $208,000,000 and earnings of $9,575,000 in the fiscal year ending Oct. 31.

In the previous year, the company said, sales were $199,954,000 and earnings were $12,694,000.

Dividends dropped from $2.58 a share in 1957 to $1.78 in the year just ended

Dr. Squires Dies

NEW LONDON, Conn. (AP) — Dr. Paul Chatham Squires, a psychologist in the human engineering branch of the medical research laboratory at the U. S. Navy Submarine Base, died Tuesday in a hospital after a short illness. He was 64.

Among his recent studies were the reactions of the crew members of the atom submarine Seawolf, which remained under water for 60 days.

Holiday Outlook

Snow Flurries, Biting Winds Are Menu for State

ALBANY N,. Y. (AP) — Snow flurries and biting winds are on the weather menu for Thanksgiving Day across New York State.

Southwest winds of gale force were predicted for Western New York.

The Weather Bureau said snow squalls, developing in intensity, would rake land areas east of Lake Erie and Lake Ontario, Thursday through Saturday. A foot or more of snow might fall near the Great Lakes, the bureau said.

Temperatures will be in the 20s and 30s, the Weather Bureau said.

They are expected to be slightly higher over the weekend, but scattered snow flurries will continue.

Head of Asphalt

was excused from appearing "at this time."

The grand jury is investigating possible violations of the Sherman Anti-Trust Act in the awarding of the paving contracts.

Under the law, witnesses in anti-trust cases are granted immunity from any prosecution on their testimony unless they specifically waive this right.

Three Others Decline

Three officials of two other companies that have had city contracts have also declined to sign waivers and have been excused from appearing before the grand jury.

Brayer was cited for contempt for refusing to answer questions in September before an Erie County grand jury checking charges that bribes were paid to city officials in connection with the contract awards.

Would Jail Him Again

He served 17 days of a 30-day jail sentence, then was released pending an appeal. The Appellate Division, Fourth Department, rejected the appeal and the Court of Appeals in Albany refused to consider a further appeal.

Erie County officials said they would seek to return Brayer to jail to serve the remaining 13 days of his sentence when official notice was received of the court of appeals action.

Jamestown Against School Marriages

JAMESTOWN, N. Y. (AP) — Jamestown's board of education, noting a national trend towards marriages of high school students, has taken steps to discourage them here.

In a new policy adopted Tuesday night, the board ruled that married students may attend classes, with the principal's permission, but are to be barred from any other school activities.

Also, special schedules will be drafted for married students.

Officials said they felt it "undesirable for married students to meet with and talk to single students.

Dutchess Adopts Record Budget; $275,167 Increase

Twenty-one Republicans and two Democrats of the Dutchess County Board of Supervisors voted on Tuesday to adopt a record gross budget of $5,178,621.42 for 1959, an increase of $275,167.99 more than this year's allocation. The total votes for the budget were 23 to six with one Republican and five Democrats opposing it.

The budget was adopted without change. It provides for 12 new positions, including a fourth assistant district attorney. That position had the closest vote with 11 members voting to bar a new aide for District Attorney Raymond C. Baratta and 18 voting in favor of the aide. At present there are three assistant district attorneys on the staff.

The board also adopted a salary resolution, 23 to 6, authorizing salaries to be paid as provided for in the budget.

underground. Dulles said he is not discouraged by the slow and difficult progress of the Geneva talks.

3. A new committee named by President Eisenhower to appraise foreign aid may produce some fresh decisions on the balance between U.S. military and economic assistance over the world. Theoretically, Dulles said, it seems that too much money is being spent on military and not enough on economic help.

View on Church Move

4. In response to questions about a recommendation from the National Council of Churches last week that the United States move toward recognizing Red China, Dulles said he attaches great weight to action by church people on moral principles but not the same weight when they get into practical details.

5. Policies of the United Arab Republic under President Gamal Abdel Nasser may or may not fit in with Communist policies from time to time but Dulles doubts that UAR activities are Communist inspired. The UAR motivation, he said, is to expand Arab unity.

The United States has repeatedly declared during the past two weeks that it intends to stand firm on its position as an occupation power in West Berlin, a position shared with Britain and France.

But there have been widespread evidences of disagreement among the Western governments, including the government of West Germany, over the tactics to be followed in carrying out this basic policy.

Danger Signal for Blackwood

BY OSWALD JACOBY
Written for NEA Service

As most of you readers know, the popular Blackwood Convention is a means of asking for aces and kings. Four no-trump asks for aces; later on, five no-trump asks for kings.

The club response shows no aces or kings, as the case may be; diamonds shows one; hearts two, etc.

Occasionally, a player will not like his hand and will want to lie about his holding. The customary and somewhat unethical manner is to go into a long huddle and then reply one short. If partner is honest, he will bid on the assumption that you have told the truth; if not, he will know that you have one extra ace or king as the case may be and take advantage of this information.

The Jacoby method is to play a definite convention that a player may lie about two cards —never one, and only when certain that partner can recognize the lie.

South's five-club bid today is an example of this convention. His jump to four hearts had been a substantial overbid and his five-club showed this and his two aces at one and the same time.

This caused North to stop at five hearts which was all the hand could make. If North had held the king or queen of hearts he would have bid the slam anyway.

Elmira Raids Net Five as Gamblers

ELMIRA, N. Y. (AP) — State and city police, in a crackdown on gambling, arrested five men in raids here Tuesday.

Four men were charged as common gamblers. The fifth was charged with illegal possession of policy slips. All five were released in bail pending arraignment.

Dist. Atty. Paul H. McCabe said the raids climaxed a long investigation designed to eliminate organized gambling in the city.

Ulster Park

ULSTER PARK — Regular services will be conducted at the Dutch Reformed Church Sunday 9:45 a. m. by the Rev. Harry E. Christiana, pastor. Sunday school will be held at 11 a. m. with Mrs. Frank Van Aken, superintendent, in charge.

Mrs. George Villielm Jr., is a patient at Kingston Hospital and Mrs. Lena Crosby is reported ill at the home of her daughter, Mrs. N. Quick, West Hurley.

At the regular meeting of Ulster Grange Wednesday night Deputy Master Vernon Barnhart and Juvenile Deputy Mrs. William Pratt of Stone Ridge were honored guests. The Lecturer, Georgianna White, presented a Thanksgiving program. Both deputies gave talks on grange work and reports on the recent State Grange meeting in Saratoga.

Deaths

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

DAYTON, Ohio (AP) — Charles F. Kettering, 82, world-famed engineer-scientist who developed the automobile self-starter, died Tuesday of a stroke. Kettering, head of the Research Division of General Motors, held 140 patents on his own inventions and improvements on the inventions of others which revolutionized a dozen industries. He was born near Loudonville, Ohio.

PEORIA, Ill. (AP) — Dan T. Kepler, 72, consulting engineer on such huge building projects as the Alcan Highway and the Oak Ridge, Tenn., atomic energy plant died Tuesday. He was born in Dorchester, Neb.

LONDON, Ont. (AP) — Walter D. Jackson, 72, former president of the International Assn. of Fairs and Expositions, died Tuesday. He was general manager of the Western Fair, one of Canada's most successful annual exhibitions, for 33 years until his retirement last January.

Woman Blown From Car

FONDA, N. Y. (AP)—Mrs. Elinor Climenko, 50, was a hospital patient today after being blown from her automobile while she was travelling on the State Thruway Tuesday.

State Police said she had opened her car door to slam it shut and thereby fasten it more securely. A strong wind pushed her out of the vehicle, police reported.

The car struck a guard rail. Mrs. Climenko, a resident of Slingerlands, near Albany, was taken to Amsterdam City Hospital suffering from a broken hip and cuts.

The car was a foreign make on which the doors opened toward the rear.

Downtown Man Is Found Guilty for Trip With Girls

Harold Donald Graubaugh, 25, of 56 Chapel Street, who was arrested late in October on a charge dealing with endangering the life or health of a minor, was found guilty in city court last night.

City Judge Aaron E. Klein imposed a $50 fine and 30 days suspended sentence, and placed him on probation for 90 days.

The arrest followed a reported trip to Albany from Kingston, by the defendant with three teenage girls, a boy, 16, and a young man aged 20.

It was indicated that three "six packs" of beer had been bought and consumed. They had left Kingston early on a Friday night, it was reported, and on returning, the car was driven to the Palenville area where it ran out of gas. They returned home Saturday morning.

Ages of the girls were given as 15, 16 and 17. The arrest followed an investigation after the father of one of the girls told the story of the trip to the police.

It was revealed that the 20-year-old young man left the others in Albany and hitched-hiked back to Kingston.

Attorney Thomas F. Saccoman appeared for the defendant and John E. Gotelli or the district attorney's office.

Lester Francis Jansen, 18, of 157 Hasbrouck Avenue, charged with speeding was fined $15. Henry L. Green, 28, of 229 Smith Street, Poughkeepsie, charged with driving an uninspected car, was fined $10, and Sherwood Landers 20, of Box 147, Hurley, charged with driving a vehicle with a faulty muffler, was fined $5.

Irving B. Robinson Jr., 32, of Box 174, West Park, charged with passing a red light, was fined $5 by Judge Klein this morning.

Swallows Fish Hooks

CUSHING, Okla. (AP)—Fisherman Bobby Joy Wilson, 22, was holding four fish hooks between his lips when a friend slapped him on the back. He gulped the hooks and doctors today are pondering the best method of removal.

Belgium's coast line is 40 miles long.

1954 Model Cars, Trucks Must Have December Check

Because 1954 models of cars and trucks become "more than four years old" on January 1, 1959, they then become subject to the state's periodic inspection law and must be safety-checked before they may be driven on the highways after December 31 of this year, the Bureau of Motor Vehicles reminded motorists today.

In order that the more than 7,000 public inspection stations in the State may accomplish the task, December has been set aside for the purpose of testing the 1954's. Each must display a valid inspection sticker on and after January 1. The sticker will be good until November, 1959.

All 1953 and older vehicles must pass inspection before they can be registered for 1959. The registration renewal stub must bear the stamp of the inspecting station.

Motor Vehicle Bureau offices are now issuing '59 tabs to be attached to the rear 1958 license plate as evidence of 1959 registration. Tabs may not be displayed until January 1.

Harriman Names Wilson to State Power Authority

ALBANY, N. Y. (AP)—Republican William Wilson of New York City has been appointed to a new, five-year term on the State Power Authority.

Gov. Harriman named him Tuesday to a term ending May 6, 1963. The post pays $10,000 a year. Wilson is vice chairman of the authority.

The governor renamed two other Republicans to administrative agencies.

Other Appointments

Elmer A. Carter of New York City was appointed to a new term on the State Commission Against Discrimination at $15,200 a year. The term ends July 1, 1963.

Alfred R. Loos of Blauvelt, Rockland County, was appointed to a new term on the State Parole Board at $17,400 a year. That term ends June 18, 1963.

The appointments are subject to confirmation by the State Senate, which convenes Jan. 7.

Harriman leaves office Dec. 31 but it appeared likely that the incoming governor, Republican Nelson A. Rockefeller, would send the names to the Senate. The three appointees originally were named to their posts by Republican Thomas E. Dewey.

Harriman made these other appointments:

Theodore Tannenwald of Scarsdale to succeed Walter D. Fletcher of New York City on the board of trustees of the State University in a term ending June 30, 1964.

Mrs. Betty Hawley Donnelly of New York City as a university trustee in a term running to June 30, 1968.

Dr. Louis Carp of New York City to a six-year term on the board of visitors of the Rockland State Hospital (reappointment).

James Reynolds of Schenectady, a vice president of Alco Products, Inc., as an employer representative on the State Advisory Council on Employment and Unemployment Insurance. He succeeds the late John L. Train of Utica.

Hanover Is Named

Harold C. Hanover of Buffalo, president of the State Federation of Labor, as employe representative on the employment council (reappointment).

Hanover and Reynolds were named to terms ending May 24, 1963.

Members of the university board serve without salary.

Those on the employment council receive $45.48 per day plus expenses. That group advises the industrial commissioner.

Kerhonkson Man Suffers Cut Eye As Car Hits Pole

Ernest Royer, 27, of Kerhonkson, suffered a laceration of the left eye Tuesday night when his car left the Samsonville road just east of the Cherrytown road, Town of Rochester, and smashed into a utility pole.

Trooper Joseph Ellsworth of the Ellenville state police reported that Royer was proceeding east in a 1951 sedan at 10 p. m. when the mishap occurred.

He was rounding a sharp left curve downgrade when his steering wheel locked, the vehicle leaving the road on the right side, striking the Central Hudson pole and overturning.

Central Hudson was notified and repaired the damage.

Armory and 156th

the elected officers of the associations concerned.

Lieutenant Col. Frank W. Harkin said he was "proud and happy to have this installation and its administration rated among the very best in the State of New York, and I am grateful for the support that is given by all of the state personnel and the National Guardsmen concerned."

Missionary Will Speak Tonight at Nazarene Church

REV. RONALD DENTON

A Nazarene missionary just returned from South America, the Rev. Ronald Denton, will be guest speaker at Church of the Nazarene, Elmendorf Street at Wiltwyck Avenue, tonight 7:30 o'clock.

The Rev. Mr. Denton, with his wife and four children are in the United States on deputation work. They have been in South America for the past 11 years under the auspices of the Department of Foreign Missions of the Nazarene denomination which maintains world headquarters in Kansas City, Mo. Their work has been in Bolivia and in Uruguay, where they have been introducing the Nazarene program. At the close of the furlough they will return to Brazil where they will assist in opening the work of the Church of the Nazarene in that country.

The Rev. Mr. Denton was born in Akron, Ohio. He received a bachelor of arts degree from Asbury College, Wilmore, Ky., in 1945, and took graduate work at Asbury Seminary. He also took a course in missionary work at Nyack Bible School, Nyack.

The Rev. Robert I. Goslaw, New York District Supt. of the Church of the Nazarene, and his wife, Marjorie Goslaw, who is the District Missionary President, will accompany the Rev. Mr. Denton. They will have charge of the service and will present the program of the District Missionary Society.

Temple Emanuel

Friday, services will be held in the Temple. Rabbi Herbert I. Bloom will speak on the topic, "Comments on Harry Golden's 'Only in America'." The public may attend.

There will be no Religious School Sunday, because of the Thanksgiving Holiday. The National Federation of Temple Youth meeting originally scheduled for Sunday evening will be held the following Sunday, Dec. 7, at the home of Rabbi and Mrs. Herbert I. Bloom, 192 Clinton Avenue.

Saturday, Dec. 6, first light of Hanukkah.

Hebrew classes are held following regular school at the Jewish Community Center and at the home of Rabbi and Mrs. H. I. Bloom, 192 Clinton Avenue.

The music for all services at the Temple is under the direction of Cantor Julian Lohre.

Support Is Urged To Help Needy By Mayor Radel

Mayor Edwin F. Radel, in a statement on Thanksgiving, today urged support of campaigns in behalf of those who are "less fortunate."

"On Thanksgiving Day, 1958, as Mayor of the City of Kingston, he said, I call upon all, who are in a position to do so, to contribute the necessities of life to those less fortunate, by supporting the drives of the various religious and relief organizations in our city to promote a better, happier Thanksgiving for those in dire need, and for ourselves by the feeling of satisfaction created for us by aiding others."

Paltz Builder Gets $1,341 in Court Case

John E. Arena, New Paltz builder, was awarded $1,341 in County Court Monday by a jury which heard the contract action brought against Malvin A., and Anna Kittay, also of New Paltz. A counter claim brought by Kittay against Arena for $1,000 for money spent in completing the Kittany home resulted in a no cause verdict.

Arena brought the action to recover an unpaid balance on the construction of a home for defendant Kittay, and also for extras which it was alleged was ordered. The jury, which did not return its verdict until 9 o'clock Monday evening, found no cause in the action for extras.

Alfred Hafke of Harp and Hafke appeared for plaintiff and John L. Larkin for defendants.

Jurors in the case were excused by Judge Louis G. Bruhn with the thanks of the court. Other jurors had already been discharged for the term.

Three Are Held For Grand Jury On Arms Charges

Two Long Island men arrested Saturday for illegal possession of firearms were held for the grand jury Tuesday following a hearing before Justice of the Peace Arthur Reilly of the town of Ulster.

They are:

Charles J. Miloro, 21, Elmhurst.

Philip P. Kopec, 20, of Jackson Heights.

They were represented by Attorney Charles Saccoman.

Following the examination the two men were recommitted to the Ulster County jail.

Kopec, Miloro and Robert L. Spinelli, 21, of Jackson Heights, L. I., were arrested by Kingston Thruway police during a routine check at the local interchange.

When arraigned before Judge Reilly on Saturday Spinelli waived examination and was committed to the local jail to await action of the grand jury.

The three men were turned over to Kingston state police by Sgt. Ray Dunn of the Kingston Thruway police.

State police are reportedly continuing the investigation in connection with three revolvers found in the 1949 sedan the men were driving when they were stopped.

Union Hose to Meet

The next regular meeting of Union Hose Company will be held Thursday, Dec. 4, at the firehouse on East Union Street. All members are urged to attend.

Discussion Held On Dutch Help For Valley Fete

Possible ways in which the Government of the Netherlands might participate in the Hudson Valley phase of the Hudson - Champlain Celebration in 1959 were discussed at a conference in New York City yesterday.

The conference was held in the office of the Dutch Consul General J. H. Van Rijckevorsel. Jan Van Houghlin of Washington represented the Ambassador from the Netherlands.

Harry Rigby Jr., a member of the State Commission on Historic Observances, and Albert Kurdt, Manager of the Kingston rea Chamber of Commerce, representing the Hudson Valley Council, attended. David Beetle, chairman of the Albany Committee; John G. R. Pell, chairman of the Federal Commission and State Historian Albert C. Corey were also in attendance.

Numerous possibilities of joint participation were considered but it was not possible to formulate any specific plans at this timc. Definite interest in participating was shown because of the close historic ties between the Hudson Valley and the Netherlands.

Laborer Is Sought

PRINCETON, N. J. (AP)—Lloyd C. Williams, 36-year-old farm laborer of Plainsboro Township, is being sought by police in connection with the fatal shooting of Mrs. Rose Drake, 42, last Sunday.

Williams, formerly of Williamson, N. Y., had argued with Mrs. Drake shortly before she was shot in the abdomen with a 16-gauge shotgun. Mrs. Drake, a Negro, died Tuesday.

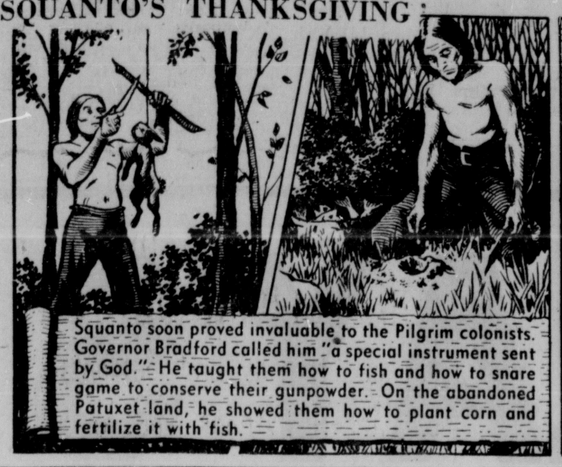
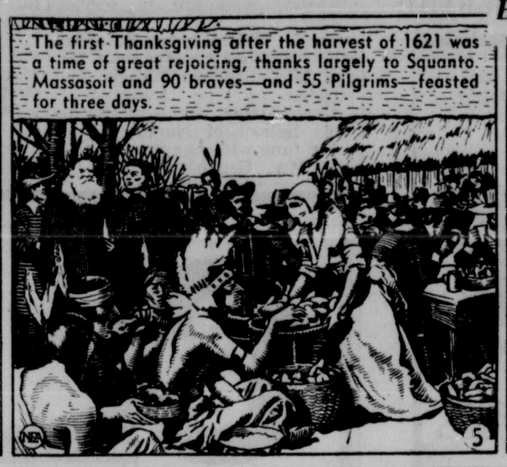
SQUANTO'S THANKSGIVING

By Don Oakley and Ralph Lane



Squanto soon proved invaluable to the Pilgrim colonists. Governor Bradford called him "a special instrument sent by God." He taught them how to fish and how to snare game to conserve their gunpowder. On the abandoned Patuxet land, he showed them how to plant corn and fertilize it with fish.



The first Thanksgiving after the harvest of 1621 was a time of great rejoicing, thanks largely to Squanto. Massasoit and 90 braves—and 55 Pilgrims—feasted for three days.

Squanto did not live to see the eventual success of the colony. Two years after he "adopted" the Pilgrims, on a trading expedition along the coast he caught a fever and died. His last words to the Pilgrims: "I have tried to be friends."

Crushed by Tractor

KIRKWOOD, N. Y. (AP)—Clifford Conrad, 22, was killed Tuesday when a farm tractor he was operating overturned and crushed him.

The accident occurred on his father's farm near this Broome County community.

Turkey Crop Near Record

ALBANY, N. Y. (AP) — New York State farmers grew a near-record crop of 621,000 turkeys this year, the State Agricultural Department says in a Thanksgiving Day report.

The department said Tuesday that most of those birds would be on dinner tables Thursday.

American Indians prized the lotus as a food.

Magistrates Assn. Against Cutting Out Local Courts

The Ulster County Magistrates Association has taken an official stand against recommendations of the Judicial Conference to abolish the magistrate system and police justice courts.

It has adopted a resolution pointing out that the abolishment of justices of the peace and police justice courts will work a profound hardship on people accused of crimes.

The cost of propositions recommended by the Judicial Conference will be costly it says and will slow up due process of administering justice.

The justice of the peace is now instructed in the law administered by him through schools of instruction and knows better the problems of his community, the association contends.

It was also announced that the annual banquet of the association will be held sometime in February.

Warren McDowell is chairman of the banquet committee consisting of Wilfred Doolittle, John Beaver, Harold E. Macholdt and Allen S. Dargie.

Plans will be announced in the near future.

Nowadays sweetbreads come in frozen as well as fresh form. Either way they need to be simmered in enough water to cover them until they are tender. Membranes and tubes are removed after simmering.

Worry of FALSE TEETH Slipping or Irritating?

Don't be embarrassed by loose false teeth slipping, dropping or wobbling when you eat, talk or laugh. Just sprinkle a little FASTEETH on your plates. This pleasant powder gives a remarkable sense of added comfort and security by holding plates more firmly. No gummy, gooey, pasty taste or feeling. It's alkaline (non-acid). Get FASTEETH at any drug counter.

Earlier Matinees

NEW YORK (AP) — Traffic congestion around Broadway on matinee days is now getting the attention of the League of New York Theatres.

The group, which represents play producers, is considering starting afternoon performances at 2 o'clock instead of 2:30, so the fans can be out in time to avoid the 5 p. m. jam caused by the homeward rush of office workers in the vicinity.

Bronx Hunter Found

DOWNSVILLE, N. Y. (AP)—Mortimer Raymond was almost a day late for a Catskill rendezvous he had agreed on with two fellow hunters.

When he failed to appear at the appointed time Monday, the companions reported to police that he was missing. A widespread search was launched.

Raymond, 21, of The Bronx, was found yesterday near the rendezvous. He had spent the night in the woods. He was in good condition when found.

Going to Michigan

WASHINGTON (AP)—Dr. Bascom Johnson is being transferred from the post of director of professional services at the Veterans Administration Hospital at Sunmount, Franklin County, N. Y., to the post of manager of the hospital at Iron Mountain, Mich.

The change was announced Tuesday.

Let us give thanks

We have so much to thank Thee for, dear Lord—
Thy love that gathers us in sweet accord
To pray and praise. For tables richly spread
And blessed peace that sweetens daily bread.
For joys of life that gild the passing days—
Home, work, love, friends. For freedom's shining rays
That spotlight cherished rights to think, to speak,
To worship as we please. Lord, help us seek
For ways to share these gifts with all mankind!
And hasten on the golden years that find
From sea to sea the battle flags all furled—
Thanksgiving Day observed throughout the world!

"Get a load of the tape recording I made at the party Pop and Mom threw the other night!"

Today's Business Mirror

By SAM DAWSON

AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP)—You can find plenty to be thankful for Thursday if you try.

Look over the business scene and just for one day at least put aside worries about the queasy stock market, the disturbing world trouble spots, the high cost of living (and the fears it may go higher later on), burdensome taxes (and the threat that they may go higher still), and the hard core of unemployment.

Just remember how much better a lot of things look today than a few months back.

The turkey on your Thanksgiving table costs a little less this year than last. And the government says food prices may ease enough for awhile to keep its cost of living index on the same even keel it has held since July.

Fears of further inflation, especially of the runaway kind, are easing a bit now, too.

They are based largely on expectations of continuing federal deficits and of still more twists in the wage-price spiral. But Washington now tells us that rising tax collections next year and the government's new determination to hold down spending should keep the coming year's deficit lower than first feared.

Business earnings are picking up. They're not back to where they were last Thanksgiving, but they're healthier than they were last Easter. If profits continue to improve, it will make the stocks you hold look safer and the returns on them as good or better.

Corporations have learned cost paring tricks that partly offset rising wage scales. This can hold down prices or steady profits or both.

Industrial output has been rising, bringing some of the jobless back to work and lengthening the work week for others. The government says manufacturers new orders are gaining, promising still greater industrial activity next year, which in time will whittle at the total of the jobless.

Most individual incomes have held high. Strikes have pulled the total down a bit, but as they are settled incomes are expected to climb again.

Merchants talk confidently of record Christmas sales this year. They say that general business recovery has perked up consumer confidence.

And, finally, while hopes of much easing in the cold war are mighty slim, even here there's something to be thankful for. So far it's been mostly a war of words. As long as they keep talking, they may stave off the shooting.

Shokan

SHOKAN — Weekend visitors to the hub of the reservoir country included Ben H. Byrd of Muldraugh, Ky., who had flown to New York to join his brother-in-law, John Clark, Valley Stream, L. I., for a couple of days deer hunting in the Catskills.

Chester B. Winchell, Kingston resident who died Wednesday at the age of 71, was formerly well-known throughout the Town of Olive where he was born and brought up, and where his ancestor, James Winchell, a Revolutionary War soldier, had settled in the early 1700's. He was the son of Henry and Irene Boice Winchell who lived along the Samsonville Road. As a young man he was associated with his father in the operation of a milk distributing plant at the big contractors camp in waterworks days. Later, he was engaged in lumbering in the Grand Gorge area for many years.

John Valland who has been attending school and working part time in New York, spent last week at the Valland home on the Reservoir Road. He will soon report for U. S. Army service.

Having a birthday Nov. 30 is Frank Sharwell, Route 28 man who for many years previous to his retirement was secretary of the Naval YMCA, Norfolk, Va. He is married to the former Nellie Bell of Shokan.

Sunday traffic was heavy through the village. The rush of east-bound cars in early evening was reminiscent of good old summertime conditions.

New York City's reservoir forestry men have begun winter operations locally. They were sawing firewood at the headworks last week.

Walter Snyder and wife were local callers Thursday in the course of a trip to the mountains.

Mrs. William J. Loos, Inwood, L. I., and youngest daughter, Margaret, spent the weekend at the Loos bungalow on the Ridge Road. They were accompanied by Margaret's cousin, Kathy Kelly, also of Inwood.

Shandaken people here Saturday included Mrs. Paul Miller, of Woodland Valley. Accompanying, Mrs. Miller was Mrs. John Boyd, of Chappaque, Westchester County, who with her husband has a summer place at Woodland.

Pataukunk

PATAUKUNK — Betty Lou Brown, who is a sophomore at Oneonta State Teachers College, is expected home for the Thanksgiving recess.

Mr. and Mrs. Kent Van Nostrand of Woodbourne celebrated their 29th wedding anniversary Sunday.

Stewart Nelson bagged a deer Saturday. Among the other fortunate hunters from this area were Ben Lee and James Allison.

A resolution, adopted by the Rochester Town Board recently will seek legislative action in Albany during the 1959 State Legislative session, permitting it to borrow sufficient funds to pay outstanding claims against the Town of Rochester Highway fund incurred during 1955 through 1957. At the same meeting, the Board also discussed the conditions of the entrances to Route 209 from town and county roads throughout the township, created by recent work on 209; and needed repairs to the former Pataukunk school building now owned by the town.

Miss Linda Pomeroy was a weekend guest of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Wynkoop.

Mrs. James A. Wynkoop and two children, Joseph and James, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Lester A. Wynkoop.

Mrs. Jean Denman spent a few days with her daughter, Mrs. Edward Deyo and son Richard.

Edward Deyo was home for the weekend and Mrs. Deyo and their son plan to return with him to Niagara to spend the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Milstone and daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Tennanbaum and son, Elliott, and Mrs. Tennanbaum's father were here Sunday to visit their many friends.

WE SHOULD COUNT OUR BLESSINGS!

We, in America, are fortunate and have much for which to be grateful. It is a good thing to stop and remember, in our busy lives, the heroic men and women, who wrought a new way of life from a wilderness.

Perhaps these courageous people did not dream of a Modern America, but they had vision and faith! For their sakes, and our own, we should continue to build for the future.

THIS IS THE ONE FOR WAGONS! 1959 CHEVY

Chevrolet's five stunning new station wagons for '59 are shaped to the new American taste with fresh, fine Slimline design. And they're beautifully practical — with roomier, quieter Bodies by Fisher, an even smoother ride, new ease of handling!

Wagons were never more beautiful or dutiful. From low-set headlights to wing-shaped tailgate, these '59 Chevrolets are as sweet looking as anything on wheels. They're just about the handiest things on wheels, too—from their overhead-curving windshield to their longer, wider load platform. Besides additional cargo space (a full 10-foot span with the tailgate down), you also get added seating room (4 inches more in front, over 3 inches in back). And you'll find such other practical advantages as new easy-ratio steering, Safety Plate Glass all around, tougher Tyrex cord tires, bigger, safer brakes, smoother-than-ever Full Coil suspension and a roll-down rear window (electrically operated as standard equipment on the 9-passenger Kingswood). Your dealer's waiting now with all the details on why this year—more than ever—Chevy's the one for wagons.

Let Us Give Thanks

". . . That we may then unite in most humbly offering our prayers and supplications to the great Lord and Ruler of Nations, and beseech Him to pardon our national and other transgressions; to enable us all, whether in public or private stations, to perform our several and relative duties properly and punctually; to render our National Government a blessing to all the people by constantly being a Government of wise, just and constitutional laws, discreetly and faithfully executed and obeyed; to protect and guide all sovereigns and nations and to bless them with good governments, peace, and concord; to promote the knowledge and practice of true religion and virtue, and the increase of science among them and us; and, generally, to grant unto all mankind such a degree of temporal prosperity as He alone knows to be best."

---Following in the historical tradition of the Pilgrims, these words are from the Thanksgiving proclamation issued in 1789 by our nation's first president, George Washington.

MR. AND MRS. ROBERT B. EVORY of 147 O'Neil Street who will celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary on Thanksgiving Day with an open house party. Friends and relatives are cordially invited. The event will commence at 4 p. m. Mr. and Mrs. Evory were married on Thanksgiving Day, Nov. 26, 1908, at the home of Mrs. Evory's parents, the late Edgar and Jane Ann Shultis, Glasco Turnpike, Woodstock. Officiating clergyman was the late Rev. Walter Frederick of Christ Lutheran Church, Woodstock. The Evorys, who have resided in Kingston since their marriage, have four children, Mrs. Gertrude Britt of Ardsley; Robert Evory and Mrs. Helen J. Hyatt of Kingston; and Loren Evory of Valhalla. They also have nine grandchildren. (Freeman photo)

DAR Members Plan Benefit Card Party

MARY E. BUCHANAN

Mrs. Hollis M. Burhans and Miss Carolyn D. Newkirk, co-chairmen of the Approved Schools Committee of Wiltwyck Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, have announced that the date of the annual Tamassee Schalorship card party has been changed to Tuesday evening, Dec. 2.

Proceeds of this year's card party will be used to provide a scholarship for Mary Ellen Buchanan, a 14-year-old, eighth grade student at Tamassee DAR School, Tamassee, South Carolina. Mary Ellen is the most recent of a series of young girls who have been assisted, through the efforts of members of Wiltwyck Chapter, in obtaining an education at the Tamassee School.

This school, which is owned and entirely supported by the chapters comprising the National Society, Daughters of the American Revolution, has as its objectives the education of children from remote, mountainous areas of North and South Carolina and raising the level of living standards generally in the area which it serves. Although many day students attend Tamassee, its greatest service is to the boarding students, whose homes are located so far back in the mountains that school attendance would otherwise be impossible. Room, board, clothing and tuition are provided for these children without any cost to them; the expense being underwritten primarily through the scholarships provided by the DAR Chapters throughout the United States. Wiltwyck Chapter has provided such a scholarship for over twenty years.

This year's card party, which will be held at the DAR Chapter House, will have a Christmas theme. Dessert will be served at 7:30 p. m. Those planning to attend are reminded to bring their own cards.

Members of the committee in charge of the card party, in addition to Mrs. Burhans and Miss Newkirk, are: The Misses Virginia M. Curtis and Marion E. Schwenk, tallies; Mrs. Harry R. Rigby Jr. and Miss B. Isabel Herdman, awards; Mrs. Charles F. Campbell, Mrs. Stuart S. Randall, Mrs. Joseph L. McCann, decorations; Mrs. Walter McClure Jr., publicity; Mrs. Robert J. Torrens Jr., Mrs. Elmer P. Resseguie, Mrs. John M. Schleede, Mrs. Warren A. Russell and Mrs. Alfred M. Relyea, refreshments and serving.

Reservations for tables should be made with Mrs. Burhans, Miss Newkirk or Miss Curtis as soon as possible.

Calls for $500 Fine

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich. (AP)—Police Judge Edward G. Burleson wants Michigan voters to approve a constitutional amendment making the maximum fine for a misdemeanor $500. Judge Burleson told the City Commission the old maximum of $100, set in 1908, has not kept up with the rising cost of living.

Of Many Things

Thanksgiving

What can you say about Thanksgiving that hasn't already been said — by learned men, poets, historians.

How can you describe Thanksgiving — its meaning varies so with the individual.

For an aged mother sitting with her family at the dinner table, it means remembering days gone by. For Grandpa, perhaps, it's the warm comfortable feeling of a hearty meal, pipe and slippers, a contented nap.

For the youngsters, perhaps, it means seeing the plump, brown turkey, feeling the exhilaration that always accompanies a "special" day—or, when with chums, vying for the honor of belonging to the family with the largest turkey in the neighborhood.

Thanksgiving, we know, is a time for nostalgia, for ignoring diets, and enjoying old-fashioned refreshments. It's a day for casting cares and worries aside—for basking in the sunlight of friendship, companionship and love.

The days of the husking bees and hay rides, barn dances and apple bobbing contests are all part of our sentimental history and the Thanksgiving holiday. And let's not forget the traditional Thanksgiving Day Football Game!

What Are Blessings?

But for what do we give thanks? Is it for the turkey—the candied sweet potatoes, the bicarbonate? I wouldn't think so. The family sitting down to a good old fashioned meatloaf dinner has just as much for which to be thankful. The family whipping up hot dogs and sauerkraut also has many blessings to count.

We are blessed with many things—with children, with the love of our parents, husbands, wives; with health and the means to better health. We are blessed in that we can forever possess all the fond memories of some loved one who, although departed, has left with us his most cherished thoughts, ideals and objectives. We are blessed with the earth, sky and sea about us, all of nature's wonders.

And for these things we should pray.

Prayer is a mighty fortress and we can learn a lesson taught in 1787 when the Constitutional Congress was meeting in Philadelphia for the purpose of forming the Constitution of the United States.

Let Us Pray

Fifty-seven patriots were in attendance. Seven of the number had served as Governors of their states, eight had signed the Declaration of Independence, 21 had fought in the Revolution and 38 had been in Congress.

Each was well meaning, but a serious cleavage opened between the spokesmen of the big states and those of the small states. The convention was deadlocked time and again. Tempers and patience were worn and some of the members seemed ready to return home.

And then, Benjamin Franklin, the oldest and most experienced statesman in the assembly, arose and suggested that they pray. "Perhaps in the midst of our prayers, God will speak to us," he said.

And out of that convention came The Constitution of the United States, certainly the most wonderful work ever accomplished by man.

Let us pray for knowledge, for as J. Edgar Hoover, director of our Federal Bureau of Investigation, says, "Knowledge is our best defense. As alert citizens you and I can do a lot to keep America the 'land of the free and the home of the brave.' We must defend America against communism but, first, we must learn what communism is, not what it claims to be."

Knowledge is a strong weapon.

Let us also pray that the future will bring a rekindled American faith based on our priceless heritage of freedom, justice and the religious spirit.

Let us pray we never forget that in all the civilized world there is no story which compares with America's effort to become free and to incorporate freedom in our institutions.

And let us give thanks that our America was founded upon a Christian concept that recognized God given rights of man, the dignity of the individual and the infinite significance of the human soul.

May you have a very wonderful Thanksgiving.

Chemical Club Meets

A meeting of the Mid-Hudson Chemical Engineer's Club will be held at 8 p. m. on Monday, Dec. 1, in the Conference Room of the Texaco Research Center, Glenham. Mr. Fred Gasche, president of Autoclave Engineers, Inc. will speak on "High Pressure Technology." The meeting is open to the public.

Arabs Using Refugee Problem To Stir Unrest, Says Bloom

Real Solution Is Not Wanted

That "sliver of land in the Middle East called Israel" is a citadel of democracy in the Middle East, the only certain United States friend in that "dynamite keg," Rabbi Herbert I. Bloom, of Temple Emanuel, said in a speech before the Rotary Club of Woodstock Monday night.

Speaking on the subject: Modern Israeli in the Contemporary World, Rabbi Bloom told an enthusiastic audience that there is a great sense of misunderstanding and distortion about the Israel-Arab problem.

"The Israelis do not hate Arab's" he said. "Rather Israeli does loathe the modern Arab leadership."

The Arab governments are spending millions of dollars on anti-Israel propaganda in the United States, said Dr. Bloom, who also spoke at length on the highly misunderstood and propagandaized Arab refugee problem.

"More than two million people wanted to return to Israel after the state was constituted in 1948," said Rabbi Bloom. "Even after Israeli offered condemnation and settlement for damages. But the Arab refugee problem twisted and distorted by the Arab propagandists, is being used to keep anti-Israeli feeling alive in the world.

A Poltcal Football

"It is a matter of history," the rabbi continued, "that some non-refugee Arabs were worse off and came by the thousands under the refugee program. It is a problem that will never be solved as long as the present Arab leaders are around the refugee question can be used as a political football and propaganda medium. It boils down simply to this: The Arab leadership does not want to solve the Arab refugee program."

"If Nasser had been stopped in the Sinai there would not have been the mess in the Middle East there is today," continued Rabbi Bloom. "It was thought Nasser could be trusted, but he can't. He's just another 'cardboard Hitler'."

The Israelis didn't want bloodshed, but it was a question of either fight or be pushed into the sea, he added.

"Russia has desired control of the Middle East for centuries," Rabbi Bloom went on, adding that world powers have cajoled Middle East potentates because of oil interests and because of the fear of Russian infiltration. Yet the Middle East remains in constant ferment and the Arabs are in a constant state of disunity—one of the contributing factors of their defeat at the hands of the Israeli."

Speaking of Nasser, Rabbi Bloom noted: "Nasser is not a Communist. He has the ability, the dishonesty and all the appeal of the demagogue. He hates Israel because it is the only nation to defeat him. Nasser is holding off an attack on Israeli because he knows that, short of intervention by a 'big power' no combination of Arab states can defeat the resolute Israeli army."

Recalling his trip to Israeli about five years ago, Rabbi Bloom gave some entertaining examples of Israeli humor and said the peoples of the young, new state have a "sense of gaiety and life as is found only in America."

"The Israelis have no respect for mere position," he went on. "The U. S. is actually more concerned than Israeli about the future of the area. The Israeli is burdened by lack of industry and the huge defense forces they must maintain for self preservation. In all the turmoil and tension of the Middle East, they create and will create finer things in the future. The mere thought of war does not scare them."

Rabbi Bloom was introduced by Dr. Edward Gurland of Woodstock who said Dr. Bloom had done more to advance the interests of Jewry in the area than any other person he knew.

Robert L. Sabin of Kingston Rotary extended the governor's greetings.

It was announced that Senator Bernard Tompkins, who is conducting the Ulster County kickback investigation will be the guest speaker at the Monday, Dec. 1 meeting.

Letter Praises Geertsema Role In Town Affairs

Asserting that Mrs. Tobie Geertsema needs no defense "from us or anyone else", Helen Goodrich Buttrick and Dolores Christiana of Woodstock have submitted the following letter-to-the-editor in rebuttal to a recent communication from Mrs. A. J. (Wiggie) de Lisio. The letter reads as follows:

"Mrs. Tobie Geertsema needs no defense from us or anyone else but we can't help expressing some amusement over Mrs. "Wiggie" de Lisio's hymn of praise to the supervisor and other Woodstock Town Board members, who bear up under Mrs. Geertsema's questioning with such patience and fortitude. Mrs. Geertsema, says Mrs. de Lisio, asks too many questions, especially at Board meetings where presumably all business should be cut and dried and predigested.

"If Mrs. de Lisio had attended meetings throughout last year, she would have found that Mrs. Geertsema always asks questions and, if we know our Councilwoman, she will continue to do so until she is satisfied with the answers. Perhaps some of the questions would be unnecessary, if Mrs. Geertsema were taken into the private counsels of the Board, where policy is actually made in the important town matters, including budget.

"Instead of sharing in all deliberations as she has every right to do, she is treated as an outsider and interloper and, at each meeting, faced with ready-made decisions that will automatically be endorsed by perfunctory vote. She asks questions that open up floor discussions. For too many years, a small group has had its own way—no one asked questions For her temerity, Mrs. Geertsema has earned the obvious disfavor of some rabid Republicans, but the gratitude and admiration of most of her constituents.

"Mrs. de Lisio also accused Mrs. Geertsema of untruths in her newsletters, but she gives not a single fact to support her accustation. Actually, Mrs. Geertsema goes out of her way to be fair and objective. She praises what actions she believes to be for the good of the town and criticizes those she feels to be bad. In at least one instance she even wrote a paragraph lauding the supervisor for an action she felt merited public recognition.

"In another paragraph of her letter, Mrs. de Lisio calls upon the residents of Woodstock to come to meetings and to be informed and vigilant in town affairs — actions which Mrs. Geertsema has previously urged on many prior occasions, and advice which we heartily endorse.

"However, we can't help noting that Mrs. de Lisio's call comes belatedly, as did the recent motion of a Board member setting a definite monthly meeting date for the Town Board. Mrs. Geertsema has been voted down for a solid year on this same motion. In fact her motion was never even seconded. Apparently, it took another election defeat to convince the Board that public knowledge and participation in town affairs were something people were going to insist upon, once Mrs. Geertsema had shown it to be possible and desirable.

"Perhaps this year our Board will learn (something) more—to work constructively in concert with the two minority members and not rely on arbitrary power to isolate and outvote their duly elected colleagues. If not, the going may be a little rough for Mrs. Geertsema and Mr. McGrath but they, too, have patience and fortitude. If necessary, they can wait until November, 1961."

ST. GREGORY'S SERVICE

A Thanksgiving Service will be held Thursday at 10 a. m. at St. Gregory's Episcopal Church in Woodstock. The Rev. Herald C. Swezy, vicar, will be in charge.

Essay Contest For Children

During the first week in December, townspeople will be receiving a letter requesting contributions to aid in the annual Christmas-on-the-Green celebration. Enclosed with the letter will be a notation concerning the essay contest.

The contest is being changed a bit this year. Students living in the township of Woodstock who are in grades 4, 5, 6, 7 and 8 are eligible. The subject is "Why I Like Christmas on the Green," although that need not be the title.

Compositions should be 50 words or less, and written in either pen or pencil. The letters should be mailed to Barbara McGrath, Box 518, Woodstock and must be postmarked by 5 p. m., Dec. 20. Don't forget your own name and grade on the essay.

The names of the judges are being kept secret for a while yet, but each is well qualified and interested. More prizes will be awarded this year, ten $5 prizes, two for each grade. Parents are urged to encourage their children to submit essays.

Ohayo Unit to Meet With Mrs. Scheu, Dec. 3

Ohayo Unit, Ulster County Home Extension Service will hold its Christmas party at the December 3 meeting at the home of Mrs. Otto Scheu, 13 Overlook Drive, Woodstock Gardens at 8 p. m.

Guest speaker at the meeting will be Mrs. Ann Cassidy, public health nurse.

Thanksgiving Services At Dutch Reformed

A special Thanksgiving service will be held at the Dutch Reformed Church Thursday at 7:30 p. m.

The sermon to be preached by the Rev. Wayne C. Olson is "God To Man: To God." A nursery is available for small tots.

Lowdens Celebrate Golden Anniversary

The Lowdens, Arthur B. and Isabelle , of Wittenberg Road, Bearsville, celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary Wednesday, Dec. 3.

Mr. and Mrs. Lowden came to Bearsville in 1931, bought the property known as "Flat Rocks" and have been year round residents for most of the time since. They will celebrate the golden anniversary with their family, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Leys and daughter, Evelyn, at a dinner in Kingston. The following morning, Mr. and Mrs. Lowden will leave to spend the winter, as is their custom, at Naples, Florida.

Woodstock Couple Proud Grandparents

Mr. and Mrs. Barnett Byman of Bearsville Road are now proud grandparents, as Mr. and Mrs. Robert Staller announce the arrival of their first child, Teresa Leigh, on Nov. 21 in Santa Monica, Calif. The mother is the former Luba Andrea Byman of Treble Clyffe, Woodstock, and New York City.

Mr. and Mrs. Byman will be flying to Moorpark, Calif., to be with their children at their ranch for the Christmas-New Year holidays.

Newburgh Votes $3,285,466 for Budget in 1959

Members of the Newburgh City Council voted Tuesday night and adopted a 1959 municipal budget of $3,285,466. It provides for a real estate tax rate increase of 25 cents per $1,000 assessed valuation to $27.15.

The vote was 3-0. Of the council's two-man minority, Mayor William D. Ryan was in Buffalo attending a committee meeting for mayors and Council Joseph M. Gaynor Jr. failed to vote.

Until the last council meeting it had looked as though the rate would be down 12 cents. But immediately after the budget hearing the council raised the total by $20,000 to provide health and insurance for all city employes.

Uneasy Times Still on Menu

Being Alive Enough to Be Thankful for on Holiday

By James Marlow
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — Thursday is Thanksgiving Day. And what do we have to be thankful for?

For two things, mainly:

1. That we're still alive at a time when the United States and the Soviet Union have enough atomic and hydrogen bombs to make the human race look like a piece of wrapping paper that was burned in an open field years ago.

2. That so long as there is no war we can go on hoping that war between the East and West, between the Communist and non-Communist world, can be postponed until in the end there will be no war.

But every year ahead — from one Thanksgiving Day till the next — will be an uneasy one.

Communism is a crusading belief, bent on capturing the world. The Western democracies have the task of building dikes against the tide, with aid and arms, hoping in the end their way of life will look more attractive.

It won't be easy. In the struggle between the two beliefs, the democracies may have to move further and further towards socialism, and communism further and further towards individual freedom.

In the end — if peace can be preserved — communism and capitalistic democracy may have lost so much of their original identity that they will have become something different from what either side imagines now, and almost identical.

The best reason for thinking so is that life itself — and life means both ideas and men's desire — is steadily undergoing change.

May Not Be Enough

At this moment when the West is giving aid to more backward peoples — and still trying to balance its budget — it feels that it is doing the best it can. Years from now, if communism wins, the West may feel it did far less than enough.

Communism, both in China and in the Soviet Union, is straining its utmost to come abreast of and surpass the West in a matter of a few years. As an example: the recently announced Soviet economic plan.

The West has no reason to be self-satisfied. It's in a life and death struggle. Because it has led the world for centuries — in production and living standards — is no guarantee it can continue to do so.

What is unknown now, and seldom talked about, is the potential of the backward people, in Asia and Africa. That potential will become clearer when they get started on the road to the 20th century and begin to perform with the energy all men are capable of.

It is these people with the black and yellow skins who, when they begin to assert their potential, may change the course of history and the direction of both communism and capitalistic democracy.

One thing is sure: On this Thanksgiving eve the West, proud and self-assured for so long, cannot look into the future and be positive that on some future Thanksgiving Day it will be the winner.

Steam Locomotive Arrives in Walden

Scenes of a past era returned to Walden this week with the arrival of a steam locomotive in the village.

The huge 4-6-4 Hudson type locomotive, originally owned and operated by the Nickle Plate Railroad, was purchased by the Spence Engineering firm of Walden, according to local reports, for the purpose of testing steam pressure valves manufactured by the Walden firm.

The Spence plant is located on a siding of the Wallkill Valley branch of the New York Central south of the crossing, and the steam locomotive now rests at the end of that siding.

The former Nickle Plate engine arrived in Kingston during the weekend and was towed over the Wallkill Valley to its present location.

4 Towns in County Will Maintain Same Rates

Four towns in Ulster County are among 169 in the state in which equalization rates remain the same as last year.

They are Olive, 16; Rochester, 20; Rosendale, 12; Saugerties 20.

Tentative 1958 state equalization rates have been established for 242 more towns, the State Board of Equalization and Assessment reported today.

Rates in 67 of these towns, including 10 with complete property revaluations, increased while rates in six decreased.

$496,588 Collected In School Taxes

The Board of Education at its regular meeting Monday night received the report of the tax collector, which indicated the collection of $496,588.48 and the amount of $59,991.63 turned over to the county treasurer for collection.

The Board approved the engaging of Mrs. Anita M. Lincoln, formerly of Eden, New York, to teach a fifth grade in the Main Street School. Mrs. Lincoln is a graduate of Smith College, and has taken further training at New Paltz State Teachers College and at New Britain State Teachers College. Superintendent Grant Morse reported that there are still two grade vacancies in the local system that have not been filled. One is in the first grade, and one is in the second grade.

A committee was appointed by the board to investigate the cost to pupils of hot lunches served in other school district cafeterias.

A committee from the board was authorized to accept or reject bids on the former one-room school district buildings which are to be sold.

The board approved the building of a maintenance products school in one of the buildings of the local district Dec. 13. Instruction will be given at the school by representatives of different maintenance products companies. Custodians from one or two adjoining districts will be invited.

New electric fixtures for a room in the Main Street School was approved at an approximate cost of $500.

Thanksgiving . . .

. . . is that wonderful time of year when we all reflect upon our many blessings. And while this holiday is normally celebrated in the home, it's quite appropriate to say a business can be thankful too. We, as a bank, are thankful for many reasons, not the least of which is our growth during the past several years. In attaining over 25 million dollars in deposits and 30 million dollars in assets, we're grateful to our many friends and depositors who made these events possible. We're also thankful for our new quarters which were designed to be of greater service to our community.

As a business we try daily to operate our bank in the most efficient manner possible. By so doing, our depositors will receive the greatest return on their money.

This is one way of our saying "thank you."

Think It Through

OFF THE BRINK

Secretary Dulles and Chiang Kai-shek have receded from the extreme positions they took two months ago.

Formosa itself must be defended at all costs as a bastion guarding our interests in Japan and the Philippines.

But apparently Mr. Dulles will be more cautious about nailing the seat of our pants on a hornet's nest, as at Quemoy.

MR. HUTTON

Chiang Kai-shek's placing nearly half of his good troops on this tiny island, five miles off the coast of Asia, could be interpreted as a provocative step, both by the Chinese Reds, and by our European allies.

Honor or "face" does not require one to fight on the exact spot chosen by his enemy. Every military commander will withdraw from an untenable position in order to fight on better ground.

Even in the good old days, when knighthood was in flower, and a man was challenged to a duel, he had some freedom to say where he would fight it, and with what weapons.

It seems wise to let Red China stew in his own juice, in the hope that internal revolution will some day give Mao Tse-tung all he can handle at home without riling the folks next door.

That he is sitting on millions of hornet's nests is indicated by his present program to force his people into a more severe form of Communism than the world has known since ancient Sparta.

Neighbor, he is gambling against 2000 years of history.

E. F. HUTTON

MODENA NEWS

MODENA — Anouncement has been received here of the birth of a son, Monday Nov. 17, to Mr. and Mrs. Richard Stewart, at the Mercy Hospital, New Orleans, La. Both Mr. and Mrs. Stewart are former local residents, Mrs. Stewart being the former Ellen Gierisch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Gierisch.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Marquard are the parents of a daughter, Lorilyn Marie, born Saturday, Nov. 22, at St. Francis Hospital, Poughkeepsie.

The Marquards are new residents of this locality, having purchased the house of Mrs. Oscar R. Smith, Route 44-55.

Mrs. Edna Pierce was among employes of St. Lukes Hospital, Newburgh, receiving awards for service periods ranging from 5-25 years.

Mrs. Pierce has been employed as a nurse at the hospital for five years.

Mrs. Nelson G. Heges led devotions at a recent meeting of the Missionary Society of the New Hurley Reformed Church, held at the home of the president, Mrs. Albert Cronk.

The December meeting will be a joint meeting with the New Hurley Ladies Aid Society at the church hall.

Mrs. and Mrs. Edward Conroy of Brewster, were recent visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy H. DuBois and daughter Marylou.

The following events are listed, locally, for the ensuing week: Wednesday evening, Nov. 26, Thanksgiving eve, union services at the Clintondale Methodist Church, congregations of Modena and Clintondale Methodist, Clintondale Friends Churches participating.

The Rev. Jesse Stanfield of the Clintondale Friends, the Rev. Dr. James E. Brimelow of the Associate Reformed Church, Newburgh, will assist the Rev. George Johnson, pastor of the Modena Methodist Church, in services and Sacrament of Holy Communion, at Modena Church Thanksgiving Day, 7-9 a. m. Methodist Youth Fellowship members will go to New York City Friday, Nov. 28, leaving Modena at 7 a. m.

Sunday, Nov. 30, the first in a series of four sermons on "The Paths to Peace" with a sermon on "War and Peace," will be delivered by the Rev. George Johnson at worship services in the Modena and Clintondale Methodist Churches.

Fellowship Rally will be held Sunday evening at the Modena Methodist Church. Everyone in the parish may attend.

Arrangements are completed for the card and game party to be held Monday at the Hasbrouck Memorial Hall, sponsored by the Public Health Nursing Committee.

Born Aboard Ferry

CORNWALL, Ont. (AP) — This fellow may have trouble determining the land of his birth.

A son was born Tuesday to Mrs. Veronica Cook, 18, of St. Regis, Que., while she was aboard a ferry halfway between the United States and Canada.

Mrs. Cook was crossing the St. Lawrence River from the American side to Cornwall.

The 18-year-old mother is the wife of a steelworker on the St. Lawrence Seaway.

Mother and son were doing fine at Cornwall General Hospital.

THIS 'N' THAT

Thanksgiving Day has rolled around and all the family's homeward bound. There's Gramps and Grandma, bright and gay (each 80 years, if they're a day). Here's Pa and Ma (Lord love the pair)! There's Cousin Kate and Brother Blair. And, playing on the parlor floor are seven grandchildren — or more. Out in the kitchen, Sister Sue (with Ma in charge) and old Aunt Lou have worked like beavers all the day to get the dinner under way. With extra leaves the table's laid. The rolls are baked, the coleslaw made. Let's gather round the festive board and bow our heads—and thank the Lord. And then pitch in and get to work upon that tantalizing "Turk!"—Karl Flaster.

THANKSGIVING

O Lord, I am so thankful
For all the little things—
The sudden flash of color
Upon a bluebird's wings;
The scarlet leaves of dogwood
Beside my kitchen door;
The way the yellow sunbeams
Trace patterns on my floor;
While all the world is giving thanks
Dear Lord, I hubbly pray
That every moment of my life
Will be Thanksgiving Day.

Rocky Is Urged To Keep Consumer Counsel Office

ALBANY, N. Y. (AP) — The State Consumer Advisory Committee has some advice for Governor-elect Nelson A. Rockefeller: Continue the post of consumer counsel in state government.

Democratic Gov. Harriman created the cabinet-level post on consumer affairs when he took office in 1955.

Dr. Persia Campbell has held the job under Harriman.

Rockefeller has not said whether he plans to appoint a consumer counsel.

The advisory committee adopted at a meeting Tuesday, one resolution urging Rockefeller to keep the consumer post and a second proposing creation of a Joint Legislative Committee on Consumer Matters.

The committee said that considerable progress in advancing consumers' interests had been made through Dr. Campbell's office in the last four years.

Harriman told the meeting he took great pride in Dr. Campbell's work.

On the advisory committee are representatives of statewide organizations and individual experts on consumer affairs.

Hearing on Rt. 208 Project Set Dec. 9

A public hearing to consider a proposed highway reconstruction project on Route 208 will be held Tuesday, Dec. 9 in the Shawangunk Town Hall, from 1:30 to 3:30 p. m., it was announced today by State Superintendent of Public Works John W. Johnson.

Superintendent Johnson pointed out that Section 116 (c) of the Federal Highway Act (1956) provides that State Highway Departments, in connection with submission of plans for a Federal-aid highway project may hold hearings at which the effects of such construction can be publicly discussed. Transcripts of these hearings are forwarded to the Federal Commissioner of Public Roads.

A brief description of the project follows:

Reconstruction of about 5.4 miles of Route 208, starting at the Route 300 intersection east of Wallkill and extending northward to about 200 feet north of the Route 55 intersection. The present concrete pavement will be widened to 24 feet, straightened and resurfaced with asphalt concrete.

The hearing will be conducted under the general supervision of Kurt G. Rauer, district engineer in charge of the Department's district office in Poughkeepsie. Written statements—for the official record—may be filed with Mr. Rauer within five days after date of the hearing.

Guard Moving Artillery

ALBANY, N. Y. (AP) — The New York National Guard will move artillery of the 27th Armored Division from Buffalo to Rochester.

Maj. Gen. Ronald C. Brock said Tuesday the move followed a Pentagon request for guard deployments to meet latest defense requirements.

Brock said the artillery would be turned over to the 105th Anti-Aircraft Brigade.

That brigade will be converted and personnel will be merged into the artillery section, Brock said.

Quick Prevue Of the Classic

By ED PALLADINO

In case some of you don't know it by now, Kingston High School will play at Newburgh against the Goldbacks tomorrow in the game of the "week, year or century," whatever you want to call it...Incidentally, it will be a football game...A football team, for the ones who don't follow the sport, has 11 men playing on each side at the same time...Instead of confusing you, I'll just say take a trip to Newburgh tomorrow morning and see for yourself what a spectator sport this game of football is.

* * *

Barring a tie between Kingston and Newburgh tomorrow, the DUSO Football league trophy will be retired...Poughkeepsie, Newburgh and Kingston each has two legs on the cup.—A victory for KHS of NFA will take the award out of competition

* * *

Coach Stan Hemingway directed the last unbeaten season in 1951 when Newburgh won seven games...one contest with Beacon was canceled. If Newburgh wins tomorrow, it will be the first time a Newburgh team has won eight games in one season, since 1945.

* * *

Several leading All-DUSO candidates will be seen in action tomorrow. Kingston has tackles Ray Spadafora and Red Peck, center Pete Letus and backs Jerry McDonough, Hobie Armstrong and John Parete. The Goldbacks feature backs Earl Butler, Charley Cotton and Gordon Fox and end Leroy Riley as their prime candidates Speaking of All-star teams, the DUSO scribes will meet Monday in Port Jervis to select the 1958 gridiron dream team.

Since this is the season for making predictions I shall now proceed to make mine on tomorrow's game. . . . . I just hope Major Hoople doesn't think he will be losing his job. . . . . Anyway, I feel Kingston has too much backfield speed, a better passer than the Goldbacks and an overall better balanced line. . . . . With all that I pick Kingston to win, 28-13. . . . . If I happen to be wrong, it won't be the first time.

Incidentally, if you are neither a Kingston or Newburgh fan, perhaps you might want to take a trip to Port Jervis and sit in on the "battle of the pixies" between the Porters and Middletown. . . . . It figures to be a close one since the home team has won only once and Middletown is winless to date. . . . . You want a prediction on this one too? Okay, Port Jervis to win, 20-6. . . . . Middletown just doesn't know how to score.

Kingston fans travelling by car to the game (how else would they go unless they either flew or walked) are advised to leave early. . . . . The crowd figures to top 5,000 and anyone arriving late may have to park more than a mile away. . . . . Parking spaces at the school are limited. . . . . By the way, if you park in front of a parking meter, chances are you won't have to put money in. After all it is a holiday tomorrow

If you are wondering about the colors each team will be wearing, Newburgh will sport gold and Kingston will wear maroon. . . . . If you happen to be color blind, there is nothing I can do in the way of advice to let you know who or what has the ball. . . . . I suggest you bring a dog to the game and maybe he will help.

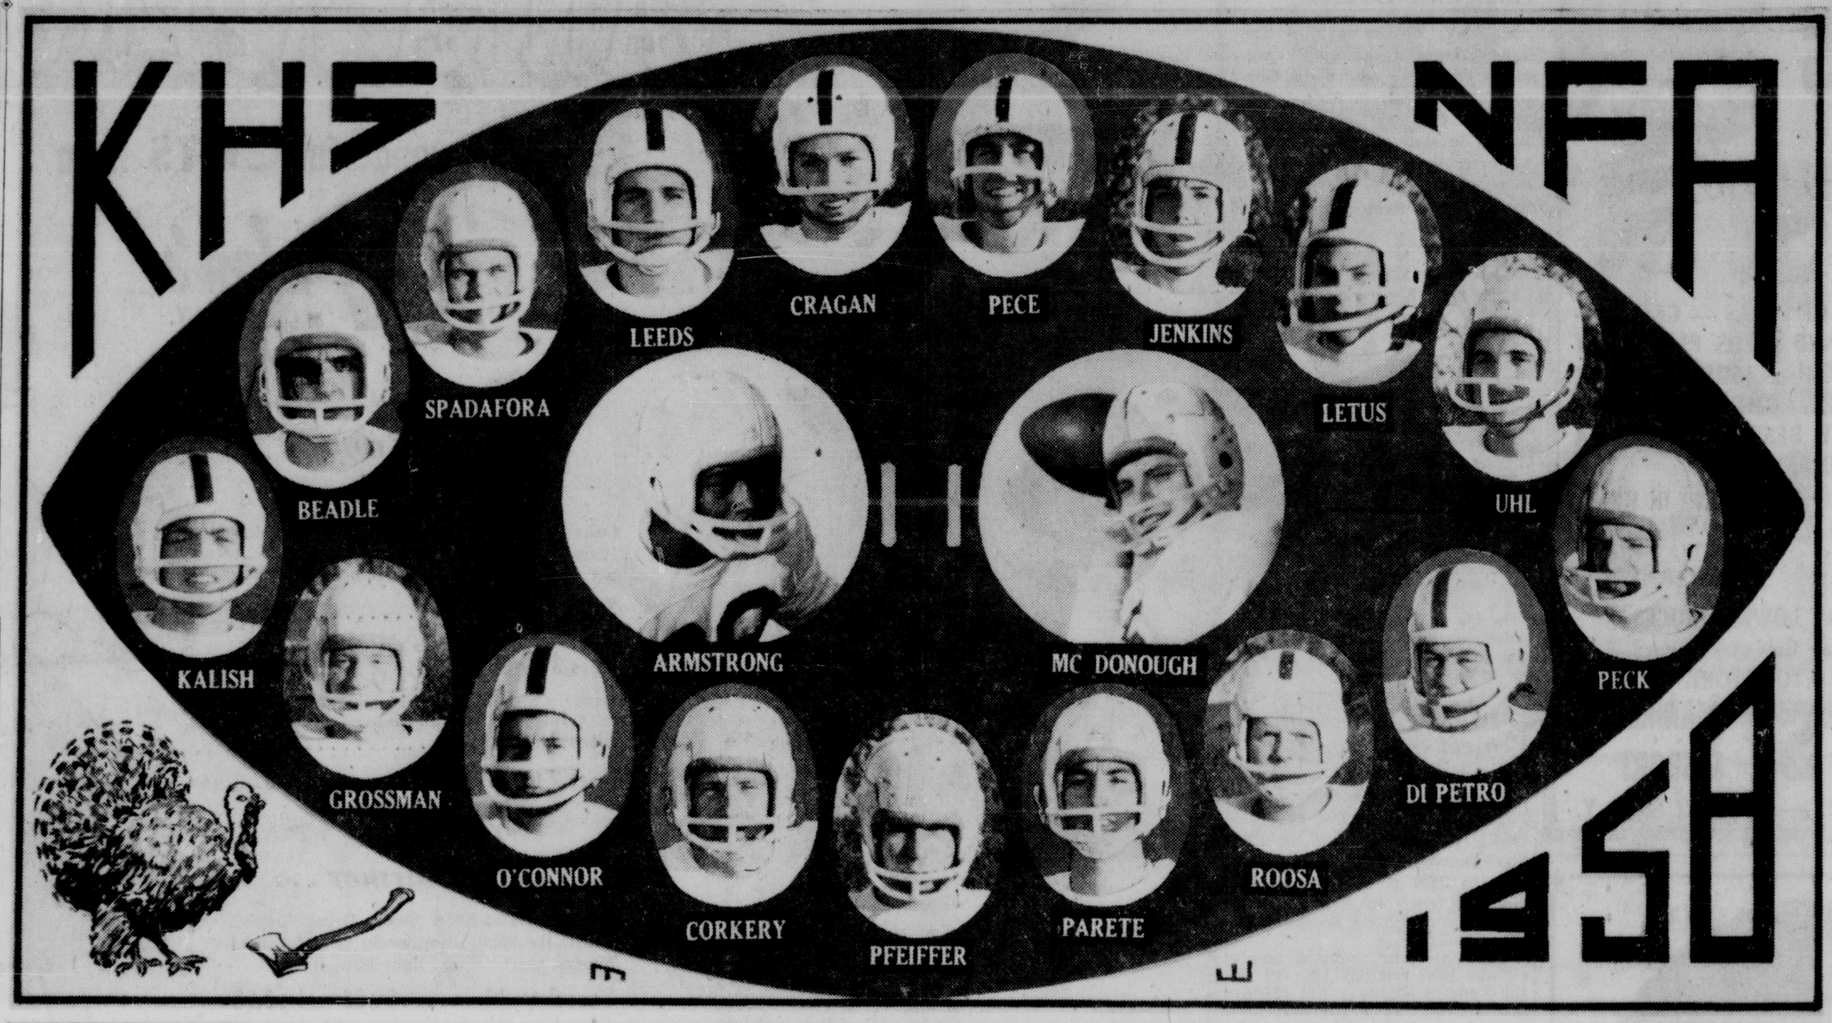
By the way, Newburgh, in case you're interested, is situated about 35 miles south of Kingston. . . . . You just take Route 9W and follow it as straight as your nose. . . . . If you have some trouble, follow the cars.

Last year's score was Kingston 39, Newburgh 21. . . . . End Bob Strong of Bill Burke's gladiators caught three touchdown passes. . . . . I guess Newburgh doesn't know what to expect this time.

Fifteen seniors, including nine starters, will be in the Kingston lineup tomorrow for their farewell appearance. They are Armstrong, Bob Beadle, Tom Cragan, Dick DiPetro, Bill Grossman, Pete Letus, Jerry McDonough, Dave O'Connor, Ed Pfeiffer, Red Peck, John Parete, Ron Roosa, Ray Spadafora, Tony Uhl and Tom Keating. . . . . Starters returning next season are Terry Kalish at end and Bob Jenkins at guard.

Newburgh has 15 seniors also, including eight on the starting team. The first stringers who will bow out are Ralph Depew, Ted Grevas, John Coupart, Americk D'Addio, Thomas Cutler, Leroy Riley, Joseph Fabrizio, Earl Butler. Reserves who are seniors include David Roe, Wesley Boat, Bill Graham, Carl DiDonato, Thomas Nott, Frank Grassi and Floyd Briscoe.

If the contest is reasonably close the final outcome may hinge on the talented extra point toes of Hobie Armstrong of Kingston and Garry Griffin of the Goldbacks. Both are better than average extra point kickers.



KHS Leads Goldbacks In Rivalry

The Kingston-Newburgh Free Academy football rivalry couldn't be any closer. Since 1915, the clubs have met 52 times on the gridiron. Kingston has won 25 games, Newburgh has captured 24 and three have ended in ties.

Since Bill Burke came to Kingston in 1946, the locals have rolled to 13 victories against only three defeats and a tie in their competition with NFA. Kingston has won the last five contests, the last loss being in 1952 when the Goldbacks took a 39-0 decision.

SPORTS

By CHARLES J. TIANO

Freeman Sports Editor

Those DUSO League sportswriting colleagues who have been tormented by doubts that Hobie Armstrong and the 1958 Maroons lack that fine hangmen's touch of 1957 may have done both a favor by exposing their innermost thoughts in agate type.

They may have lit under Hobie and Company a fire that will consume NFA's Goldbacks tomorrow morning. We figure by two touchdowns at least. Armstrong, Jerry McDonough, John Parete, Bob Beadle and Tony Uhl will operate behind an excellent line anchored by Ray Spadafora, Pete Letus, Red Peck, et al.

This is a team with football guts. They sold us on their courage in the opening minute against Mont Pleasant. The Red Raiders recovered a Kingston fumble on the Maroon 6. Four downs later they surrendered the ball and Kingston worked itself out of a deep hole. A Mont Pleasant TD on a break that early in the game would have been a psychological blow that might have changed the entire complexion of the game.

• Setting Is Perfect:

This 1958 team is anchoring the longest winning streak in either Kingston or area football history. The setting is perfect for the Olympians to match the legendary feats of the noble Maroon warriors of the past. Like the 1954 aggregation which romped to a 41-0 triumph over NFA, the highest score Kingston registered against NFA since 1919. That was the day Gene Massa carried for three TDs (10, 5 and 8) and Ronnie Ashdown slammed off tackle for touchdown romps of 33 and 63 yards. Massa carried the ball 161 yards in 15 tries for an 11.1 average; Ashdown rolled 107 yards in 5 tries for a phenomenal 21 per carry. He also added five exta points.

The 1950 squad was Kingston's first unbeaten team since 1915. Only a tie with Highland marred the record and the Maroons brought Kingston High its fifth DUSO title with a 20-7 victory at Newburgh. John Kozlowski, Harold Acker, Lee Jackson, Carl Strobel and Mike Carpino made up the KHS backfield. Carpino scored on a 3-yard plunge and 5 yards off tackle, gained 110 yards in 18 carries for a 5.11 average. Kozlowski bulled over from the 1 for the other score. Newburgh scored its lone TD in the first minute of play on a run by Ronsini.

• When Ashdown Scored:

A Roger Billings to John Turck 28-yard TD pass and Ray Roux's 7-yard slam off tackle accounted for all the points in Kingston's 14-0 triumph in 1953. Gene Massa starred in running and averaged 38.8 with his punts. . . . Although winless for the season, NFA held Kingston to a 14-6 decision in the 1955 Thanksgiving game which launched the current winning streak. Ronnie Ashdown streaked 33 yards for one score and Bob Smith went 10 for the other.

The 1956 game saw Kingston complete its first perfect season since 1915 with a 34-13 romp at Newburgh. Hobie Armstrong picked up 108 yards in 21 carries, including TD bolts of 2 and 3 yards. Bob Smith went 66 yards, Marv Engle 37 yards on a fumble and Joe White sneaked over from the 1.

The 13-12 squeaker in 1949 was one of the most rewarding in Bill Burke's regime. It was a tense contest in which Harvey Keyes smothered NFA's extra point attempt which would have tied the game by tackling Dick Tyler on the 1-yard line after he caught a pass. Five thousand fans at Dietz Stadium saw Bill Shaughnessy score from the 3, after Harvey Keyes intercepted a pass on the KHS 37 and raced to the NFA 3. Ronnie Scheffel scored from the 1 to climax a long drive and brother, Bud Scheffel made a diving catch in the end zone of an extra point pass from Johnny Kozlowski. Emmanuel Vigliotti raced 98 yards for NFA after intercepting a pass and Dick Tyler registered the other NFA score on a plunge from the one.

• See You at Newburgh:

Tomorrow's football clash between two splendid high school teams is Americana at its best. This is The Game for both schools and we look for a sensational contest. Along the way another brilliant chapter in KHS football history will be written into the record books. If just to confound the alarmists, we hope Hobie Armstrong has one of his biggest days. Ditto for Jerry McDonough and all the other mighty Maroons. Those fires that have been lighted is all the spark the young men ever needed. And let's see you in the stands at Newburgh.

35 Club Downs Amato's, 50-46

Bob Bondar scored 22 points last night to lead 35 Club to a 50-46 win over Amato's Trucking in the final contest of the YMCA Fall Basketball league.

Katsbaan Tavern won the A division title, Boulevard Gulf captured honors in the B class and Raiders won the C title.

Physical director Dick Case said the winter league will start next Tuesday night with a record 18 teams entered. The A division games will feature Spada's Sport Shop against the Bombers, Accord against Amato's and Katsbaan vs. Harry's Angels.

In B division tilts, Elston's Sport Shop will collide with the Colonials, Minute Car Wash and Texaco will clash and Balotin's r/x will meet the Backs. 35 Club and the Raiders and Boulevard Gulf and Pride Cleaners will collide in C division games on Saturday.

Third Title Is Big Aim Of Kingston

When Coach Bill Burke leads his Kingston High School football players against Newburgh Free Academy tomorrow, he will be trying to do what has never been done before in the history of the DUSO Football League—that is win three consecutive grid championships outright.

In 1943, 1944 and 1945, Newburgh won the crown three times but had to share the honors with Middletown in 1944. Kingston had the same situation in 1948, 1949 and 1950, sharing the title with the Goldbacks in 1949.

Since KHS captured the coveted championship in 1956 and 1957, tomorrow's contest will mark the try for the third straight one. Newburgh can throw a monkey wrench into the Maroon hopes by either scoring a decision or playing to a tie. In the first case, NFA would capture honors and in case of a tie, the clubs would share first place.

The DUSO Football champions since 1924 are:

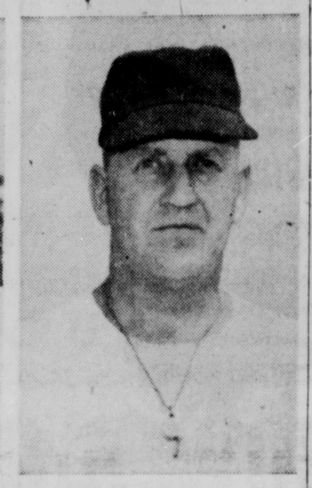
LINE COACH. Russ Cunningham the right hand man of the Kingston coaching corps, will have his well trained linemen ready to go tomorrow at Newburgh as Kingston and NFA collide in the traditional Thanksgiving Day clash.



HEAD MAN. Bill Burke, Kingston High School's successful football coach, will lead his gridders against Newburgh Free Academy tomorrow in quest of a third consecutive DUSO League championship.

Kingston Grid Record Shows 170 Victories

Kingston High School football teams have won 170 games, lost 126 and tied 27, starting with the 1915 season. Since Bill Burke arrived on the scene in 1946, the gridiron record reads 75 won, 17 lost and 8 tied in 100 games. Before Burke arrived, the mark was 95 won, 109 lost and 19 tied.

New Paltz Five Drops Tannersville, 42 - 33

Staying slightly ahead most of the way, New Paltz Central School cagers opened their 1958-59 season by beating visiting Tannersville, 42-33, last night. The win equaled the entire output of victories made by the Huguenots last season.

Birch Hayes, a returning senior, led New Paltz with 15 markers. Ron Mackey (10) also helped.

New Paltz won the jayvee game, 68-43, as Greg Upright made 23 points and Dave Salkever scored 17.

Banks Takes Honors As NL Most Valuable

By DAVE O'HARA
Associated Press Sports Writer

BOSTON (AP) —Home run king Ernie Banks of the Chicago Cubs had plenty of bad news for opposing pitchers today after winning the National League's Most Valuable Player award for 1958.

"I've just come upon this knack of hitting home runs," said the young slugger, who crashed 47 homers to shatter his major league record for shortstops.

Banks, whose homer output and 129 runs batted in topped both major leagues, was an overwhelming choice for MVP in the vote counting Tuesday by the Baseball Writers' Assn. of America.

Named on every ballot, he polled 16 of the 24 first-place votes cast by writers in the eight National League cities and piled up 283 points, the highest total since Willie Mays won the MVP in 1954.

Mays, the only other player listed on every ballot, drew three first-place votes and 185 points for his tremendous efforts for the San Francisco Giants last season.

Hank Aaron of the Milwaukee Braves, the 1957 MVP, was third with 166 points, followed by Frank Thomas, Pittsburgh Pirates, with 143, and southpaw Warren Spahn, Braves, with 108.

Is Surprised

Banks, 27, said he was surprised by his selection and called the honor "a hard one to get for there certainly are a lot of valuable players around besides me."

A veteran of five full seasons with the Cubs, he said he figures he has "a lot of years ahead of me."

"I think my peak as a player is yet to come," said the 6-foot, 180-pounder.

Banks said he believes Babe Ruth's record of 60 homers in a season will be broken. But, he added, "I don't know if I will be the one to do it, or even come close."

Joins Marion

Banks joined Marty Marion, former St. Louis great, as the only shortstop to win the MVP award since the baseball writers took over the voting in 1931. Marion won in the war year of 1944 although he batted only .267, hit six homers and drove in 63 runs.

One of the surprises in the voting was the 12th-place finish of Stan Musial, the St. Louis Cardinals' three-time MVP winner who gathered but 39 points.

Buchholz Reaches Semis in Tennis

SYDNEY (AP) — Young Earl Buchholz of St. Louis, already in the semifinals of the men's singles, entered the semifinals of the New South Wales junior singles championship today. He quickly defeated Australian Bob Pearson 6-0, 6-1 in the quarter-finals.

Buchholz's semifinal opponent is Martin Mulligan who defeated Frank Gorman, 12-10, 0-6, 6-2.

Top Australian seeded pair of Mal Anderson and Neale Fraser beat Bob Howe and Don Candy 6-1, 9-11, 8-6, 6-4 in the semifinal of the men's doubles.

South Africans Sandra Reynolds and Renee Schuurman beat Australians Lorraine Coughlan and Mary Reitano 5-7, 6-2, 6-1 in the women's doubles semifinal.

In the other doubles semifinal, the Americans, Hamilton Richardson and Alex Olmedo, were locked in a grim five set struggle with Australians Ashley Cooper and Rod Laver when darkness halted play. The Americans won the first set and the score when play was called was 6-3, 8-10, 9-11, 16-14, 4-5.

Bobo Olson Wins Comeback Effort

OAKLAND, Calif. (AP) — Chalk up another one sided victory for Bobo Olson, a hungry former middleweight champion now fighting as a light-heavy.

Bobo pounded Paddy Young into submission in six rounds Tuesday night. Referee Jack Downey went over to pug nose Paddy's corner after the sixth and was told by the seconds the New Yorker had had enough.

After the fight, each boxer said the other hit much marder than when they fought five years ago for the American middleweight title. Bobo won that one, too.

Young, four pounds lighter than the San Franciscan's 174, was covered with blood from a cut right eye, suffered in the opening round, a nose bleed in the second and a split left eyebrow in the fifth.

Under California rules, the fight goes into the record book as Olson's 32nd knockout. Young had been stopped only three times before in 10 years.

It was Olson's 68th win against 10 losses. Young took his 13th defeat. He has 49 victories and four draws.

Army, Auburn, Irish, Pitt Picked in Final Forecast

By HAROLD CLAASSEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—This is the weekend where you must decide between a drum stick or a dumb pick. Here's the season's final forecast of college football winners:

Army over Navy: Both clubs started the season with great prospects. The Cadets matured while the Middies were stymied by injuries. The season's experience benefits the Army most and gives the Cadets the edge. Anderson and Dawkins to shine. This one you can see for yourself on TV Saturday.

Auburn over Alabama: The Auburn defense is too tough, but on Saturday it won't be anything like that 40-0 walkover of a year ago.

Texas over Texas A&M: You may watch this one Thursday afternoon while digesting your turkey. The Longhorns finish in high gear.

Pittsburgh over Penn State: Both lost to Nebraska, which won only three games all season. The home field gives Pitt the edge. A Thursday contest.

Air Force over Colorado: A fancy victory for the Air Force undoubtedly means a bowl bid. But the Flyer brass will have an anxious Saturday afternoon despite Brock Storm's stellar play.

Notre Dame over Southern California: That balmy California weather is just what the doctor ordered for George Izo's pitching arm. Another Saturday game.

Skipping over the others:

THURSDAY

Brown over Colgate, Cincinnati over Miami (Ohio), Colorado State University over Denver, Penn over Cornell, Richmond over William and Mary, South Carolina over Wake Forest, Tulsa over Wichita, Utah over Utah State, Virginia Military over Virginia Tech.

SATURDAY

Arizona State over Marquette, Rice over Baylor, Florida over Miami, Georgia Tech over Georgia, Houston over Texas Tech, Texas Christian over Southern Methodist, Mississippi over Mississippi State, Oklahoma over Oklahoma State, Vanderbilt over Tennessee, George Washington over The Citadel, Clemson over Furman.

Racing Meeting

SAN FRANCISCO (NEA)—The Thoroughbred Racing Associations, Inc., will hold its annual meeting in San Francisco, Dec. 1-4.

Voices Choice

WACO, Tex. (NEA)—Larry Hickman, Baylor fullback, wants to play professional football in a city where he can continue voice studies.

Another Guzik

Pittsburgh (NEA)—John Guzik will be succeeded as a Pittsburgh guard next fall by his younger brother, Bob.

Monticello Gets 75 Racing Nights

NEW YORK (AP) — The management of Monticello Raceway has signed agreements "which resolve its construction cost problem," George P. Monaghan, New York State harness racing commissioner, said Tuesday.

The track's financial structure had been affected by unexpected increases in construction costs, the commissioner said, plus the usual problems of a first-year operation in a new locality.

Directors of Monticello had invested additional money and had purchased all stock of one of the principal stockholders, Monaghan said. He did not name the parties.

The track opened in the Catskill Mountains resort area near Monticello last June. The installation has been granted 75 racing nights in 1959, beginning next June 18.

Akins, Jordan Sign For Title Contest

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Both fighters exuded confidence at the formal signing Tuesday for the Virgil Akins-Don Jordan welterweight title fight to be staged in Olympic Auditorium Dec. 5.

Said Champion Akins: "Don's a nice fighter, but I'm not expecting any trouble."

From the challenger: "I've never been knocked out in six years of pro fighting and I don't expect to be stopped in my big chance."

Spoil Their Records

MIDLAND, Tex. (AP)—Kiwanis Club President Phil Jonsson arose at an annual banquet to present awards to members with perfect attendance records for the year. The first five members he named were absent.

Wallkill

Scouts to Hold Court of Honor

Boy Scout Troop 76 will honor mothers of scouts receiving awards Wednesday night at a Court of Honor in which the troop's sponsoring unit, Rose-Sheeley Post, American Legion, will join.

The event will be held in the Legion Home at 8 p. m.

Members of the troop will participate in the opening and the closing ceremonies which will have a patriotic theme.

Nearly 50 awards will be presented.

Through the efforts of Scoutmaster Edmund P. Walther it is hoped to have an Air Corps speaker, who has undergone a lenthy period of survival training, recount his experiences.

Eleven boys of the troop have advanced in rank while 31 merit badge awards have been gained since the last Court of Honor.

ReformedChurchNotes

Wednesday, 8 p. m., the annual Thanksgiving service will be held in the Wallkill Reformed Church. The choir will offer the traditional harvest anthem, "Praise the Lord Oh, Jerusalem" under the direction of Jack Henderson. Mrs. Louise Didsbury will be organist and the Rev. Walter N. Van Popering will deliver the Thanksgiving message.

There will be no choir rehearsal this week. Saturday, 7:30 p. m., Youth Fellowship Group will have a hayride. After the hayride, they will meet at the home of Stewart Crowell. Sunday school will open at 10 a. m. under the guidance of Superintendent Fred C. Terwilliger, and regular morning worship services will follow at 11 a. m., the Rev. Walter N. Van Popering officiating.

Tuesday, Dec. 2, the Willing Workers of the church will meet in the church hall for the election of officers.

Sunday, Dec. 7, a nomination ballot will be taken for the office of elder and deacon for the coming year.

Village Notes

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Hammesfahr and son, Paul, are spending the Thanksgiving holidays and weekend with Major and Mrs. Carl Petersen and family of Adelphi, Md. The Petersens are former Wallkill residents, and will leave in January for a three year tour of duty in Anchorage, Alaska.

Mr. and Mrs. Chauncey A. Morehouse and children, Lee and Sue, of Lockhaven, Pa., are spending the Thanksgiving holidays with his mother, Mrs. Harry Morehouse.

Esther G. Wins Yonkers Feature

YONKERS, N. Y. (AP)—Esther G. moved from fifth in the backstretch Tuesday night at Yonkers Raceway and won the feature Class A pace by a length over Prudence Adios. Knight Pilot was third.

With Hugh Bell in the sulky, the 6-year-old mare stepped the mile in 2:05 3-5 and returned $6.30 as the favorite. She is owned by Mr. and Mrs. Joseph H. Eyler of Thurmont, Md.

Pro Football Stars To Receive a Raise

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Sixty of the greatest players in the National Football League today were voted a raise in pay for their appearance in the Pro Bowl game here Jan. 11.

General Manager Paul Schussler announced that the players on the winning team will get $800 apiece, the loser $700 a hike of $100 from previous years. The players, selected from the Eastern and Western divisions, also get an all-expense stay in Los Angeles for two weeks.

Going to Kentucky

GLENS FALLS, N. Y. (AP)—The Rev. Gordon L. Corbett will become executive secretary of the Presbyteriar Synod of Kentucky on Jan. 1.

He is now moderator of the Troy Presbytery of the United Presbyterian Church.

The Rev Mr. Corbett, 38, also has been associated pastor of the First Prebyterian Church of Glens Falls, where he submitted his resignation Tuesday night.

DeGaulle In Germany

BAD KREUZNACH, Germany (AP)—Premier de Gaulle came to West Germany today for the first time in 13 years to discuss lagging European economic unity and the Communist threat to Berlin with Chancellor Adenauer.

Their closed meeting was centered on conflicting French and German views on European trade. Germany favors liberal trade policies for the six-nation European Economic Union, which the two nations dominate. French insistence on economic protection has blocked expansion of the union into a general West European free trade system.

LEGAL NOTICES

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS

Notice is hereby given, that Sealed Proposals are sought, and requested for performance, according to Contract Documents, of a contract to be awarded by the Board of Education, City of Kingston, New York for Grading and Drainage of proposed Athletic Fields at the Kingston High School.

Sealed Proposals, for said work will be received by the Board of Education in the Kingston High School, until 4:00 P. M., December 1, 1958 and will be then publicly opened and read aloud. Any proposal received after the specified date and time will not be considered by the Board of Education.

Instructions to Bidders, Proposal Form, General Conditions governing the contract, Drawings and Specifications may be examined and obtained by bidders at office of A. S. Brinnier and C. J. Larios, Professional Engineers, 41 Pearl St., Kingston, N. Y., upon deposit of $10.00 for each set of documents.

Deposits will be returned to any bidder duly submitting a Proposal accompanied by the required bid security, provided all such documents are returned in condition free of markings and defacements within 30 days following award of contract, or rejection of proposals.

Bidder shall deposit, with his Proposal, security in amount of not less than 5 per cent of his Bid in form and subject to conditions provided in "Instructions to Bidders."

Successful Bidder will be required to furnish satisfactory Performance Bond, in form as described in Proposal, in full amount of Contract Sum.

The Board of Education reserves the right to waive any informalities in or to reject any and all proposals or to accept any Proposals which it deems in the best interest of the School.

The Temperature

The lowest temperature recorded on The Freeman thermometer during the night was 31 degrees. The highest figure recorded up to noon today was 43 degrees.

Weather Forecast

CLOUDY, WINDY AND WET

Southeastern New York—Windy with showers and temperatures in the 40s this afternoon. Windy and turning colder tonight and Thursday, with showers changing to snow flurries but mostly in the north and mountain areas. Temperatures falling to the 20s by morning, with a high of 25-32 on Thursday. Southerly winds 15-30 and gusty this afternoon, turning westerly 15-30 and gusty tonight and Thursday.

Northern New York, Western Mohawk Area—Windy with scattered showers. Temperatures in the 40s this afternoon. Windy and turning colder with snow flurries tonight and Thursday. Some heavier snow squalls from western Adirondacks westward toward Lake Ontario. Temperatures falling to 15-25 by morning with only small rise Thursday. Gusty south to southwest winds 20-40 this afternoon, turning to westerly 20-40 and continued gusty through Thursday, with some blowing and drifting in the snow flurry and squall areas.

Cold, Dry Period Outlook for Area

ALBANY, N. Y. (AP) — The extended weather forecasts for New York State, prepared by the U. S. Weather Bureau, for the period from 7 p. m. today to 7 p. m. Monday:

Eastern New York—A cold, dry period is indicated with temperatures averaging 4 to 8 degrees below normal. Some moderation over the week-end. Snow flurries tonight and Thursday and likely again toward the end of the period. Total precipitation one quarter inch or less in water content.

Western New York — Wintry weather is indicated with temperatures averaging several degrees below normal. Quite cold with snow flurries and heavy snow squalls northeast ends of Lakes Erie and Ontario Thursday through Saturday. Partial clearing and slowly moderating over the weekend.

Temperature Normals — Normal temperatures over Upstate New York now range from early morning lows of 25 to 32, to afternoon highs in the upper 30s to middle 40s.

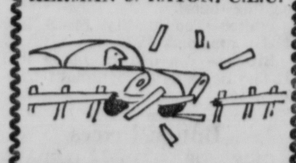
The answers to everyday insurance problems*
by
HERMAN J. EATON, C.L.U.


QUESTION: I understand a form of insurance can be added to a Fire policy to cover damage by cars to fences and walks. Can you tell me what it is?
ANSWER: There are several broad form endorsements which cover damage of that kind. The newest and most widely discussed at present being All Physical Loss.
* If you'll address your own insurance questions to this office we'll try to give you the correct answers and there will be NO CHARGE or OBLIGATION OF ANY KIND.
